Hauser appointed to Holocaust Council

Rep. C.B. Hauser of Forsyth County has been appointed by House Speaker Liston B. Ramsey as a member of the North Carolina Council on the Holocaust.

The group was created by the 1985 General Assembly to memorialize the victims of Nazi Germany's program to exterminate the Jews during World War II.

It will lend support to efforts to prevent future atrocities and to develop a program of education and observance of the holocaust.

Hauser, who lives in Winston-Salem, represents the 67th House District, made up of part of Forsyth County.

Al Spain of Jerry Watkins Cadillac-GMC Trucks has been named a sales manager.

In his new position, which became effective Oct. 1, Spain will also serve as public relations director.

Spain has been in the automobile business for 12 years.

Trimona Brandon-Garlington has been named the new physical director of the Winston Lake Family YMCA.

Her acceptance of the position was announced at the September meeting of the facility's management board. Mrs. Garlington officially began her duties on Oct. 1.

Mrs. Garlington has experience in fitness programs, fitness testing, weight training, dance and recreational activities.

Edna P. Evans of Raleigh has been selected as the new program director for the Winston Lake Family YMCA.

Ms. Evans was formerly the youth activities director at the

C.B. Hauser

Al Spain

Oberlin Road Branch YMCA of Wake County.

She has also served as program director at the Greensboro YMCA and has coached soccer and taught physical education in the Greensboro School System.

Ms. Evans began her duties at Winston Lake on Monday, Oct. 7.

Why other carpet cleaners don't offer a white towel guarantee.

All it would show is how much dirt they leave behind. Here's how our guarantee works: we'll rub a white towel over a carpet just cleaned by Stanley Steemer.* If any dirt shows, we'll stay and reclean it at no extra charge. Next time, call Stanley Steemer.
