

Community Artists Series to visit local neighborhoods

Urban Arts of the Arts Council Inc., the Junior League of Winston-Salem Inc. and the City of Winston-Salem Recreation Department launched the Community Artists Series, a two-month program of visual and performing arts classes and performances, on Monday, July 7.

The series, which will present programs in 16 neighborhoods during July and August, was introduced to take visual arts instruction and arts performances into communities not adequately served by existing arts programs.

According to Urban Arts Director Reggie Johnson, the series was created as a pilot program in 1985 in an effort to expose residents to the arts and generate neighborhood interest and involvement.

"There are many areas within our community that are either unaware or unexposed to the arts on any consistent basis," Johnson said.

"The Community Artists Series provides an additional opportunity to give residents an artistic experience in their own neighborhood and generate interest in a very informal atmosphere," he said.

Divided into two separate programs, the series includes instruction in one of five disciplines -- drawing, painting, printmaking, 3D and fiber -- twice a week, and arts performances twice weekly.

Visual arts instruction classes conducted by professional artists are held Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6 p.m. Volunteers representing the Junior League of Winston-Salem Inc. assist the instructors.

Performances by local and regional artists are offered Monday and Wednesday evenings at 7 p.m., and include music, dancing and storytelling. The locations for all events change each day.

The Flonnie Anderson Theatrical Association will perform at Happy Hill Garden Recreation Center on Wednesday, July 23. Shirley Holloway will be the storyteller. Phase Band will also perform.

Instruction in drawing, fibers, painting, printmaking and 3D will be held at the East Winston Branch Library, 1110 E. Seventh St., on Thursday, July 31.

For more information about the Community Artists Series or a schedule of classes and performances, contact the Urban Arts office at 722-0966.

St. Augustine national alumni group sets annual summer workshop

The members of the St. Augustine's National Alumni Association will be holding their 10th Annual Summer Workshop at the downtown Hilton Inn from July 17 to 19. This year's conference theme is "Working Together Toward Common Goals."

Registration will begin at 8 a.m. on July 18, and the opening session will begin at 9 a.m. with an address by James E. Burt, vice president of institutional advancement, Bennett College.

Burt is a graduate of St. Augustine's College and has done further study at North Carolina State University in public administration, development intern and at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.

He has served as a consultant in alumni administration for the Phelps-Stokes Fund and the Robert R. Morton Memorial Institute and as vice president of the Association of Fund-Raising Officers Inc.

The morning session on July 18 will focus on the topic "Strategies for Achievement." The moderator will be Marlene Jones, executive vice president.

The panelists will include Dr. Thelma Roundtree, vice president for academic affairs, Mark Adkins, director of financial aid, Wanzo Hendricks, director of admissions, Mabel J. Matthews, director of placement, Harvey Heartley, director of athletics, and George Williams, track coach.

The afternoon workshop on "Increasing Alumni Voluntarism" will have Marlene Jones as moderator and will feature panelists Gregory Sligh, coordinator of alumni affairs, Sarah Saunders, a regional vice president, William Clements, a regional vice president, Herbert Martin, a chapter president, and Dr. John Epps, a chapter president.

The banquet speaker will be Dr. Sarah Virgo Kirk, alumna, chairperson and associate professor, department of sociology and social work at North Carolina A&T State University.

Her areas of interest and expertise are the troubled adolescent, the black female and self-esteem development.

During the banquet, the president of the college, Dr. Prezell R. Robinson, will speak on the state of the college.

The concluding session on Saturday morning will address the topic "Where Do We Go from Here" and will be conducted by Betty Smith of Chicago, president of the national alumni association.

The other national officers are Marlene Sanders Jones of Raleigh, executive vice president; Ernestine Leach of Raleigh, secretary; Virginia Moore of Chicago, assistant secretary; George E. Sanders of Raleigh, treasurer, and Gregory P. Sligh of Raleigh, coordinator of alumni affairs.

IT'S A WRAP

At "If It's Paper," you can wrap up all your office and school supply buying in one place. And while you're here, pick up a few packages of our great-looking, durable, plastic book wraps! You'll love our low warehouse prices like these:

- *Book covers 6/99c
- Pencils 59c/doz.
- Spiral Notebooks, 59c ea.

*while supplies last

1214-C REYNOLDA ROAD AT ROBINHOOD 722-2662
ALSO W. MARKET ST. & SUMMIT AVE., GREENSBORO

Mon. - Fri. 9-6 Sat. 10-4
MasterCard, VISA & Discover welcome.

VIRGINIA SLIMS

You've come a long way, baby.

© Philip Morris Inc. 1986

SURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING: Smoking Causes Lung Cancer, Heart Disease, Emphysema, And May Complicate Pregnancy.

Lights: 8 mg "tar," 0.6 mg nicotine - 100's; 14 mg "tar," 0.9 mg nicotine av. per cigarette, FTC Report Feb '85.
120's: 14 mg "tar," 1.0 mg nicotine av. per cigarette by FTC method

Weddings

From Page A8

Dr. Jerry Drayton and the Rev. Kenneth Williams officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Serving as matron of honor was Patrice L. Britton of Winston-Salem.

Bridesmaids were Deidre Summey, Kim Summey, both of Winston-Salem, Joycelyn Summey of Chapel Hill, Debbie Frazier, Janet Martin, Jini Speas, Larnitha M. Hunter, all of Winston-Salem, and Tujuana Smith of Durham.

Flower girl was Andra Racquel Summey.

Best man was Lorenzo Glenn of Winston-Salem.

Ushers were Jamal Summey, Tony Summey, Harry Brown, Walter Faye, Chris Martin, all of Winston-Salem, Mark Oglesby of Greensboro, Michael Paye and Kenny Stewart, both of Raleigh.

Ringbearer was Corey Sturdivant.

The bride is a graduate of North Carolina Central University. She is employed as an assistant manager at Crown Drugs.

The groom is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is employed as a team representative for Camel GT Racing for RJR Nabisco Inc.

The couple will live in Winston-Salem.

Calendar

From Page A6

schools, recreation centers and other places where teen-agers congregate that will tell teens how to say no to drugs. Only teen-agers can enter. The person submitting the winning phrase will receive a $300 cash prize. The second-place winner will receive $150. The third-place finisher will receive $50. Entries must be submitted by Tuesday, Aug. 15, and include the student's name, address, phone number and school. There is a $2 entry fee. Entries should be mailed to The Home of Hope, 425 N. Liberty St., Winston-Salem, N.C. 27102. For more information, call the Rev. Moses Small at 924-1066.

• Murray C. Greason Jr. was recently installed as president of the Forsyth County Bar Association. Other new officers are: president-elect, Annie Brown Kennedy; vice president, James Taylor Jr.; secretary, Joseph C. Hedgepeth II, and treasurer, Mary Ward. Greason is a partner in the law firm of Womble, Carlyle, Sandridge & Rice and is general counsel to Wake Forest University. He is also adjunct professor at Wake Forest University Law School and a member of the board of visitors.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

• Organization is now in progress for the Oct. 19 Walk for Hunger. The hunger-fighting agencies that would like to share in the monies raised are asked to apply by July 25. In 1985 the 10-kilometer walk raised $19,282.50 for local hunger relief. If your organization is a hunger-fighting agency in Forsyth County and you are interested in receiving monies to support your effort, send your proposals to Mary Beth Kiefer, Oct. 19, 1986, Walk for Hunger, 912 Granville Drive, Winston-Salem, N.C. 27101. Indicate what percentage of total income is spent on administrative overhead, what percentage of income is spent or proportioned to direct food aid, education in community or program expenditures, and sources of income. Recipients will be notified by Aug. 4.