Alumni set for Bulldog reunion

Classmates in the Anderson Jr./Sr. High School Class of 1966 began planning for their 20th-year reunion in early January. Months of planning will be rewarded when class members gather for the reunion July 25 to 27.

Local classmates have been involved in the project, as have classmates from Georgia, Alabama, New Jersey, Washington, Massachusetts, New York and other areas.

The local reunion committee includes Barbara Purvis Martin, Jacqueline Biting Neal, Frazier McCollum, Ernestine Miles Hairston, Beverly Wallace Wallace, Richard Pettus, Jacqueline Adams Thomas, Lester L. Sowell, Vernetta Acker Brown, Aldine Grimes Griggs, James Lewis Jr. and Rakiballah.

The weekend activities will begin at 6 p.m. on Friday, July 25, at Les Arbres with a program and a banquet from 7 to 9 p.m. The evening will conclude with a social hour, with music provided by Mr. Bill's Productions. A class picture will be made during the social hour.

Saturday's activities will begin with a family picnic at Reynolds Park Shelter No. 10 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and will continue with the 20th-Year Class Reunion Dance in the Hilton Hotel's Carolina Ballroom from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. The dance is open to the public and all Anderson alumni and friends.

The class will meet Sunday, July 27, at 10:30 a.m. to worship with Morning Star Baptist Church. Dr. Bracy H. Bonham is host pastor. Classmate the Rev. Jimmy Montgomery will deliver the morning message, and the service will be conducted by former Anderson classmates.

A memorial service will be held for all deceased classmates following the morning service.

The members of Morning Star who attended Anderson Jr./Sr. High School from 1961-71 will be the hosts of a reception after the morning service.

For more information on reunion events call Barbara P. Martin at 767-8509, Jacqueline A. Thomas at 777-0537 or Ernestine M. Hairston at 721-1785.

Habitat for Humanity to break ground

Habitat for Humanity of Forsyth County Inc. will celebrate the groundbreaking of its second home for low-income families at the construction site at 3618 Old Greensboro Road on Saturday, July 19, at 12:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Sandra Graham, a member of the board of advisers for Habitat for Humanity Inc. and the volunteer director of the South Atlantic Regional Habitat Center, will be the speaker. A local quartet will provide music.

Habitat for Humanity Inc. is a non-profit Christian housing ministry dedicated to helping low-income families improve the conditions in which they are forced to live. Construction is a cooperative effort involving both volunteers and approved families. These homes are sold at no profit and no interest to qualified families.
