HOF sends nominations to committee

By DAVID BULLA
Chronicle Sports Editor

The Winston-Salem Sportsmen Club closed nominations for the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County High School Hall of Fame Monday.

The nominations now go on to the screening and selection committees, and the 1987 inductees will be made public April 9.

Last year's inductees were William A. "Head" Griffin, a three-sport standout at Atkins in the early '50s; James M. Webster, an all-state flanker at Atkins in the late '40s; Rupert Bell, the first black to serve as director of a city recreation center; Stan "Gabby" Crews, a wingback for the 1968 Reynolds football team that posted a 10-0 record; Norma Harbin, who at West Forsyth became the first female athletic director at a North Carolina high school, and Homer C. "Joby" Hawn, a long-time high school official.

The club is in the final stages of putting together its fifth annual induction ceremony and will hold a press conference to announce the keynote speaker and master of ceremonies for the May 22 banquet.

The club is also seeking sponsors for this year's souvenir program. For more information, call Marty Penn at 767-3238.

AAU Basketball

Amateur Athletic Union basketball practice begins this Saturday at the Winston Lake Family YMCA from 2-4 p.m.

The Winston Lake YMCA is sponsoring three teams: a 14-, 15- and 17-and-under team.

The 15-and-under team is making plans to participate in the Durham Invitational Tournament next month. That tourney brings together teams from North Carolina, Virginia and Washington, D.C.

For more information, call Norman Joyner at 724-9205.

NBA Pro-Am Entry

The Charlotte NBA Pro-Am League is taking entry fees for its second season, which begins in June.

The cost to enter the league will be $600 per team with a 25-percent, non-refundable deposit of $240. Payment of the deposit must be made by Friday.

League play begins June 6. Most games will be played on Saturdays and Sundays at Johnson C. Smith University. One weekend each will be played in Winston-Salem and Greensboro.

For more information, call William H. Shelton at 704-567-9511 or 568-0896.

Chez Andre Wins

The Chez Andre team won the Alpha Phi Alpha basketball championship last month.

Chez Andre defeated Duke Power in the championship game. Winston Plaza Hotel took third and Brown & Williamson Tobacco Co. was fourth.

Chez Andre's Alvis Rogers, the former Wake Forest standout, was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

Y Volleyball

The Hustlers captured the Winston Lake YMCA co-ed volleyball championships last month, topping the regular-season champion Players in the tournament championship.

Members of the Hustlers are George Johnson, Adele Jowers, Clark Davenport, John Norwood, Terry Hanks, Rodney Roundtree, Danny Imes and Michael Benton.

Youth Baseball

The Twin City Little League will hold registration Saturday at Rupert Bell Park from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Tryouts will begin March 28 and run through April 3. The draft will be held April 4.

The Pony League draft for unattached players will be held at Kennedy Middle School on April 11 from 2 until 5 p.m.

For more information, call Barbara Puryear.

Football Coaching

All persons interested in coaching positions with the Tiny Indians youth football organization should contact Hobart Jones at 722-8444 or Franklin Bennett at 761-1893 by Monday.

The Tiny Indians play in the Northwest Pop Warner League.

For more information on the Indians, call Bettie W. Bennett at 761-3391 or 761-1893.

Trotters To Appear

The Harlem Globetrotters will bring their Diamond Jubilee Tour to the Greensboro Coliseum Thursday at 8 p.m.

North Carolina native James "Twiggy" Sanders heads an all-star cast, which includes former U.S. Olympic team captain Lynette Woodard and former North Carolina State guard Clyde "The Glide" Austin.

For ticket information, call 373-7430.

If you have a sports item, call the Chronicle at 723-8448.

played on the same high school team as UCLA guard Jerome "Pooh" Richardson. The Richardsons, who are cousins, helped Philadelphia's Ben Franklin High School win the 1984 Pennsylvania state championship ...

• Monroe Honored: Former Winston-Salem State all-America Earl "the Pearl" Monroe was honored last Saturday at the NAIA national tournament in Kansas City. Monroe, joined by such stars as Clarence "Foots" Walker and Dick Barnett, was the only CIAA player named to the NAIA's Golden Anniversary team.

The team passed over the likes of Bobby Dandridge and Sam Jones.

Miscellaneous

• Improving Lincoln: Lincoln University posted an 18-9 record this year, its best season since 1981. The Blue Tigers lost to Southeast Missouri 77-74 in the finals of the MIAA Tournament ...

• Blue Tiger Recruit: Lincoln has signed St. Louis all-metro quarterback-running back Alex Reedus. Reedus was one of 19 signees for the Blue Tigers.
