

Beauticians sponsor annual tea

Ten countries were represented at an international tea sponsored recently by the Winston-Salem Beautician and Cosmetologist Association -- Chapter No. 2.

Countries represented at the tea, which was held at New Bethel Baptist Church, included Africa, China, France, Germany, Greece, Hawaii, Israel, Mexico, Spain and the United States. Exotic foods and colors were displayed throughout the evening.

Each beautician was dressed in the costume of the country they represented.

Participants representing Africa received recognition for having raised the most money. The country also received second-place honors for the most decorative table. Mrs. Bernie Cates and Mary Louise Diggs were the co-captains.

Germany won third-place for having the largest number of people present for the tea. Betty Boston as captain and Elsie Moore was co-captain.

Anna Leak, "Miss Beautician of the Year" was the mistress of ceremonies for the affair.

Minnie Ervin, second vice president, was the narrator.

A travelogue was presented by Louise Smith.

Music for the occasion was provided by Joanna Munden and the Rev. Jerry A. Quick. Louisa Foy was the music coordinator.

The Rev. Bonham gave the opening prayer.

Judges for the event were Irma Grazier, Otho Darden, Mrs. Jerry Quick, Mrs. Munden and Georgia Dunlap.

Members of the awards and door prizes committee were Brenda McLaurin, program chairman; Mary L. Diggs, co-program chairman.

"Miss Congeniality 1987" was Virginia Stewart.

Remarks were given by Thelma L. Steen, president of the chapter.

University women present patriotic event

The Winston-Salem chapter of University Women held its annual scholarship tea Sunday, June 28, at the home of Olivia Bausman.

The theme of the tea was patriotic in scope and the basic colors throughout the occasion were red, white and blue.

The table was decorated with all-American foods, including apple pie, ice cream and soda.

Each member of the chapter brought friends to make a contribution to a worthy cause. Proceeds from the tea will be used for a scholarship, which will be presented in the fall.

All college-bound 12th grade students may participate in the scholarship program.

Members attending the tea were Wilma Wheeler, Jeanette Lewis, Emmaline Goodwin, Sandra Armstrong, Barbara Puryear, Mildred Griffin, Verna Griffin, Ella B. Tillman, Mattie Neal, Ada Brown, Piccola Morrow, Olivia Bausman and Mrs. Moore.

Saunders

Saunders named interim 'Y' head

Courtney C. Saunders has been named interim director of the YWCA of Winston-Salem/Forstyh County effective July 1.

Mrs. Saunders, the current women's services director, will serve until a replacement is found for Dawn Fisk Thomsen, the executive director, who left June 30 to pursue a book publishing career in Washington.

"We are fortunate to have someone with Mrs. Saunders' experience and (we) believe that under her guidance the YW will have a smooth transition," said Lea Loftis, president of the board of director and chairperson of the search committee.

Mrs. Saunders began her career at the Patterson YWCA in 1968 and is known for her work in developing Summer Break Day Camp for the mentally and physically handicapped. She also created a support program for widows and widowers and a marching group program for teenagers, known across the state as the YWCA Marching 100s.

The position of executive director is being advertised locally and nationally, Ms. Loftis said. The search committee hopes to have a new director in place by the fall.
