Efficient Club holds December banquet, January meeting

The Efficient Club recently held its annual banquet of the year in December.

The banquet was held at the Martin Luther King Recreation Center. The event was catered and gifts were exchanged.

The identities of the club's "secret pals" were revealed during the banquet.

The Anderson Band furnished music for the occasion.

The club's January meeting was held at the home of Theodosia Patten. Refreshments were served during the meeting.

Rozina White presided at the meeting. Officers for the new year were installed at the January meeting. Also, the agenda included the assignment of new secret pals for the year.

During the year, the club made donations to the NAACP, Hospice, Crisis Control and the Salvation Army. The donations to charity represent annual activities for the Efficient Club.
