

Browne receives scholarship from Deltas

The Winston-Salem Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. recently re-affirmed its commitment to scholarship by awarding its annual scholarship to Jacquelyn Willette Browne.

The award was given in recognition of Ms. Browne's academic accomplishments for the 1988-89 academic year.

Currently a senior at Mount Tabor High School, Ms. Brown is a member of the National Honor Society, Who's Who Among National High School Students, the Key Club, the Ebony American Society, the Marching and Concert bands and Top Teens of America. She plans to attend Howard University, where she will major in international relations.

Ms. Browne is the daughter of Elaine P. Browne and Dr. James E. Browne.

The $1,000 scholarship is awarded based on academic performance, service, character and financial need. It is renewable annually provided that the recipient maintains a 3.0 grade point average. The maximum amount awarded is $4,000.

The chapter's Educational Development Committee projects have included the selling of Moravian cookies to raise funds for the scholarship program, the Delta Teen Lift to Fayetteville State University and the awarding of the annual scholarship.

The committee is chaired by Norma Brown Guthrie.

Marian B. Simpson is president of the local alumnae chapter; Larn Dillard is the chapter representative for the scholarship winner.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. was founded in 1922 at Howard University by 22 women dedicated to a program of community service and sharing membership skills. The organization's thrusts include political action, social awareness, mental and physical fitness and the promotion of scholarship.

There are more than 100,000 members in this country and around the world.

South Atlantic Region of Gamma Phi Delta holds conference

The South Atlantic Region of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority Inc. held its regional conference May 19 to 21 in Eatonville, Fla. The theme for this year is "Building Bridges to the Future."

Local members of Alpha Upsilon Chapter attending were Ida Michael, Larnetra Richardson and Haywood Vaughn.

Ms. Richardson was elected assistant regional director/organizer and presented a workshop on recruitment.

The sorority was founded in 1943 in Detroit. It is an organization whose membership includes both business and professional women. The overall purpose of the sorority is to improve the educational and vocational status of all women and to have an active pursuit of social, cultural and academic excellence for young people. The sorority also seeks to finance their education whenever possible. The sorority sponsors two youth groups. The Rosebuds are young girls 9 to 13 years of age and the Phi Teens are girls in grades nine through 12.

Chapters are located throughout the United States. The local chapter was chartered in 1967 and has approximately 25 members. It sponsors an annual Artist of Tomorrow Ballare to showcase the talents of its Phi Teens and Rosebuds. A scholarship also is presented to a Phi Teen annually during the ballare. This year's ballare will be held June 10.

The groups also participate in the sorority's boule, which is held every two years.

The local chapter has been active on both the regional and national levels. Members of the chapter have held elected and appointed positions within the overall body. The chapter annually makes donations to charitable organizations and institutions within the community.

Gwendolyn Thompson is the basileus of the local chapter.
