Mount Zion Baptist to celebrate centennial

Mount Zion Baptist Church will hold special services each Sunday throughout the month of June and culminating Sunday, July 2, in celebration of their centennial anniversary.

Each service will emphasize the unique heritage enjoyed by the members of Mount Zion.

The theme throughout the celebration is "1989 -- A Year of Jubilee -- Let Mount Zion Rejoice!"

Sunday, June 4, will be designated as "Memorial Sunday," the day when the church remembers all of their deceased members. The pastor, Dr. Serenus T. Churn, will deliver the morning message at 11. There will be a candlelight memorial service at 6 p.m.

On June 11, the church will celbrate "Founders and Pioneers Sunday." On that day, all members over the age of 50 will be recognized. The Rev. Charles H. Churn Jr., the pastor's brother, will bring the morning message. Maya Angelou will be featured at the 6 p.m. service.

On June 18, attention will be focused on the recognition of the musicians as "Concert Sunday" will be held. The Rev. Howard Parker will be the morning speaker and a special anniversary concert featuring all of the church's choirs will begin at 6 p.m.

"Dedication Sunday" will be held June 25. Pastor Emeritus Dr. K.O.P. Goodwin will provide the morning message and will preside over the dedication of the "Goodwin-File Enrichment Center," the new multi-purpose addition to the church.

On Saturday, July 1, at 6 p.m. a Centennial Banquet will be held in the Goodwin-File Enrichment Center with Robert J. Brown, president of B&C Associates and a former White House aide, as the guest speaker.

The celebration will conclude July 2 when former pastor the Rev. G.G. Campbell Jr. delivers the 11 a.m. message and the Rev. John Mendez of Emmanuel Baptist Church conducts the 6 p.m. service.

All programs are free with the exception of the Centennial Banquet, which has a $50 donation fee for admittance. For more information call 722-2325.

WSSU, Shilohian-St. Peter's Family Center to co-sponsor community music enrichment program for children 4 to 12

Winston-Salem State University and the Shilohian St. Peter's Family Center are co-sponsoring a community music enrichment program this summer from June 13 to July 26.

The session will be held at Shilohian St. Peter's Family Center. The purpose is to provide children, ages 4 to 12, with experiences that will stimulate their interest in music and develop their creative abilities while making music.

The musical activities will consist of beginning band and string classes, intermediate band and string classes, recorder classes and general music classes.

Band and string classes will involve only students who are 8 to 12 years of age. Some band instruments will be provided for beginning students, while string students will be required to furnish their own instruments. General music classes will involve children ages 4 to 12. Music classes will meet three days each week from 1 to 3 p.m. The sponsoring organization are calling on local pastors for assistance in identifying interested children from their individual churches and providing each with a scholarship of $25.

Registration will be held at the Shilohian St. Peter's Family Center Saturday, June 3, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and Saturday, June 10, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

For more information call Dr. Manderline Scales at 750-3205, Shilohian St. Peter's at 724-5013 or La Pointe Davis at 785-2834.

SOMETHING'S FLAKY.

A BOWL OF KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES* HAS MORE SALT THAN A BOWL OF POTATO CHIPS.
A BOWL OF NABISCO SHREDDED WHEAT HAS NONE.

These days, we're all being advised to cut back on salt. Yet ounce for ounce a bowl of Kellogg's Corn Flakes* contains more salt than a bowl of potato chips. You call that breakfast?

And it's not just Kellogg's Corn Flakes* that gives you so much salt. It's Wheaties*, Cheerios*, All Bran*, Product 19*, Rice Krispies*, Chex*, and more.

Who needs it? You don't. But there is a solution: Just turn to nutritious Nabisco Shredded Wheat. With no added salt. None. And no added sugar, plenty of fiber and protein, too.

So instead of letting all that salt shake you up, try a box of good old fashioned nutrition. Nabisco Shredded Wheat. We're not a potato chip.
