

Smart Moves

Photo by Mike Cunningham

Ronald Bethune, an outreach counselor with the Salvation Army Boys Club, encourages youth to avoid the pitfalls of drug abuse during last weekend's anti-drug rally at the Cleveland Avenue Boys Club. Joining Mr. Bethune are Alderman Virginia Newell and a representative of Mayor-Elect Martha Wood.

WSSU prof gets nursing fellowship

Janice Barnes Young has been appointed an American Nurses' Association Fellow for the period of Sept. 1, 1989 to Aug. 31.

The Registered Nurse Fellowship was awarded by the Advisory Committee of the Ethnic/Racial Minority Fellowship programs of the American Nurses' Association. Its purpose is to provide graduate educational opportunities for minorities and assist in preparing them as future nurse researchers in the health careers.

The fellowship will assist Ms. Young in her current pursuit of a Ph.D. in nursing at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville, where she is a second-year doctoral student. Her research interests include the coping and decision-making skills of the black family.

Janice Barnes Young

Ms. Young is an assistant professor of nursing at Winston-Salem State University's Division of Nursing and Allied Health. She currently is on study leave.

Ms. Young maintains an active reserve military position of major in the U.S. Army Reserve Nurses Corps.

She and her husband, Samuel, have a son, Jaynard.

Va. Beach Labor Day incident to be focus of A&T conference

A number of issues surrounding the student incident in Virginia Beach last Labor Day weekend will be examined during a daylong conference at A&T State University Friday, Nov. 17.

Designated as "A Conference on Assessing Issues and Images at Virginia Beach," the program is being sponsored by the Division of Student Affairs at A&T.

The opening session of the conference will be in the Richard B. Harrison Auditorium at 8:30 a.m. and will feature the keynote address by Jack Gravely, state president assistant to the president for affirmative action for National Public Radio.

The 9:30 a.m. session will include a student panel discussion on "Was Labor Day Weekend a Greekfest?" A discussion on "When Civil Rights are Violated" will be presented by Cynthia Martin, an instructor of sociology at A&T.

Presentations at the 11 a.m. session will include "Racial Tensions/Conflict" by Christina Davis-McCoy, field coordinator for North Carolinians Against Racist and Religious Violence, and "Responsible City Planning and Governance" by James Wright II, assistant city manager for Greensboro.

For more information on other sessions, contact Dr. Dorothy Harris at 334-7792.

Jennifer A. Harris

Edward L. Melvin

Edward Melvin and Jennifer Harris graduate from Highway Patrol school

Winston-Salem residents Edward L. Melvin and Jennifer A. Harris were among the 30 troopers graduated from the 84th State Highway Patrol Basic School in ceremonies held Wednesday, Nov. 8, at the Highway Patrol Training Center in Raleigh.

Mr. Melvin has been assigned to Troop C-IV in Henderson.

Ms. Harris has been assigned to Troop F-IV in Statesville.

"I congratulate the 30 graduates of the 84th Highway Patrol Basic School. I'm confident the thorough 22-week training course has prepared them to join the ranks of the finest highway patrol in the country," said Joseph W. Dean, secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety.

"I'm very proud of our newest Troopers. The class has done well throughout training and they will make fine additions to our operations throughout the state," said Col. W.D. Teem, commander of the Highway Patrol.

The troopers took 927 hours of instruction in 70 courses during their 22-week school. The curriculum included courses in human relations, criminal and constitutional law, firearms training, precision driving and other law enforcement subjects.

The new troopers will report to their duty stations Monday, Nov. 20. They will continue their education through on-the-job training and in-service schools during their careers with the State Highway Patrol.

Community Calendar

From Page B1

State University at 6:30 p.m. The cost is $12.50.

SUNDAY, NOV. 19

The National Women of Achievement will hold a family fashion show at 5 p.m. The theme is "Family Burst into Fall, Family Fashions for One and All." The categories that will be featured are church, casual, lounging, furs, and formal wear. Entertainment will be provided between categories. The show is the church's fund-raiser for the year. The proceeds will be used for the church's scholarship fund. Flonnie Anderson is the show's coordinator. Helen Falls is president.

The staff and board of directors of the Best Choice Center Inc. will celebrate its first anniversary at 2 p.m. at the center, 1525 E. 14th St. The event will feature an open forum and will include guests Martha Wood, mayor-elect; Police Chief George Sweat, Warren Sparrow, district attorney, and other elected officials. A reception will follow the forum.

TUESDAY, NOV. 21

The Forsyth Chapter of the American Diabetes Association will meet at 7:30 p.m. at First Christian Church, 2320 Country Club Road. The program will be "Diabetes Product Fair -- Resources Equipment and Trends." Free door prizes samples and demonstrations.

The Forsyth County Council for Older Adults will address the topic of holiday depression at 2 p.m. in the auditorium of the main library. The discussion will focus on ways friends and family members can identify those who may be contemplating suicide and the rising rate of suicide among older adults. Dr. Burton Reifler of Bowman Gray and Dr. Jerry Noble of MedPsych Consulting Services will be the speakers.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 22

The Step One Players and the treatment staff from

Step One will present "Crack Issues" at the Family and Children's Treatment System meeting from noon to 1 p.m. at the Exchange/SCAN Building, 500 Northwest Blvd. The program will focus on treatment methods for crack addiction.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Crisis Control Ministry 1989 Christmas cards are now available. They feature a reproduction of "Northside," an original oil painting by Bob Timberlake. They sell for $8 per dozen. Cards may be purchased at either of the ministry's offices. All proceeds will be used to meet the needs of clients.

The Martin Luther King Recreation Center will sponsor adult fitness classes every Wednesday from 9 to 10 a.m. and Thursdays from 6 to 7 p.m. Fridays the class will be held from 9 to 10 a.m. All ages are welcome at the free program. For more information call 727-2740.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Forsyth County is seeking concerned female volunteers interested in becoming matched with girls who are pregnant and parenting between the ages of 12 and 17. For more information call 724-7993.

The adult walking for life program will meet every Wednesday from 10:30 a.m. to noon at the MLK Recreation Center. All ages are welcome. For more information call 727-2740.

A winter break to the Bahamas by way of a supercruise is being sponsored by a local group Feb. 25 to March 3. The cost is $550 per person per inside cabin; $630 per person per outside cabin. Cost includes bus transportation, two nights' motel accommodations in Daytona Beach, Fla., four nights and four days aboard the SS Emerald Seas Ship and port taxes. A $100 deposit is required immediately to reserve motel and ship cabins.

SURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING: Smoking Causes Lung Cancer, Heart Disease, Emphysema, And May Complicate Pregnancy.

17 mg. "tar," 1.2 mg. nicotine av. per cigarette by FTC method.