

Mount Glory to honor Morrisons

Mount Glory Baptist Church will pay tribute to its pastor, the Rev. J.B. Morrison, and his wife with special services next Sunday.

The tribute services, with special guest speakers, will take place on Sunday, Nov. 19, at 11 a.m. and at 4 p.m.

Elder Salester Stewart of Macedonia TVPH will open the services, which will celebrate Rev. Morrison's eighth pastoral anniversary.

The Rev. Mack McConnell of Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church will be the afternoon speaker.

Pastor and Mrs. J.B. Morrison

Mount Glory is located at 214 N. Dunleith Ave.

Johnson to speak at New Bethel

The Junior Choir of New Bethel Baptist Church will hold an appreciation program for the parents and grandparents of its members Sunday, Nov. 19, at 3 p.m.

The speaker will be Lillian Johnson, a national licensed evangelist of the Church of God in Christ. She also is the Mocksville District Missionary of the Church of God in Christ, diocese of Bishop L.B. Davenport, the state bishop.

Mrs. Johnson is a former employee of Mother & Daughter department store and is married to Elder James Johnson, pastor of Christ Temple Church of God in Christ in Mocksville.

They have four children and four grandchildren. She is the mother of

New Bethel member Audrey Easter. The music will be rendered by the Communion Singers of New Bethel.

The program is being held to show appreciation for the cooperation and support the parents and grandparents have given the Junior Choir.

The program also will pay tribute to Virginia Morehead, a supporter of the choir and of the NAACP.

Other members participating on the program are Tanya Ashe, Kendra Watts, Dionne Piggott and Alesha Poe.

Dr. Jerry Drayton is host pastor. New Bethel is located at 1016 N. Trade St.
