

Can I "jam" overseas?

By Toni Marshall

Q. I am a young Black American serviceman who is about to start my overseas tour. I will be stationed in Spain, and will probably get to see a lot of Europe. The only problem that I have is leaving my soulful music; R & B, "Rap", and "Jack Swing". How will I party overseas?

Darrell
Washington, D.C.

A. Well, soldier hold on to your hat...Don't dismay. Europeans love R & B, "Rap", and even "Jack Swing." You're in luck...Madrid, Spain is one of the "party capitals" of the world. Also lots of Black entertainers tour Europe. Another solution is buying your music from the military stores (PX, BX etc.) which are usually up to date.

Q. I really enjoy the song by Lenny Kravitz, "It Ain't Over, Till It's Over". Does he have any earlier recordings?

S.C.
Richmond, Va.

A. Let's applaud Lenny for taking a successful stab at Rock-n-Roll. Lenny recorded an album at A&M studios under the name of Romeo Blue. The album was entitled "Let Love Rule" (Virgin Records). Check your local record stores for this album.

Lenny Kravitz
(AKA Romeo Blue)
Has "Hot" new album

Q. I've recently been turned onto jazz music, I heard a song called "Afternoon in Africa" and fell in love with it. Would you have any idea who performs this song?

L.B.D.
Philadelphia, Pa.

A. The song that comes to my mind is an original composition by jazz artist Nathan Page. It can be found on his latest album or CD entitled "The Other Page." Since you're in such a great city for jazz (Philadelphia) it should be easy to walk into any record store and pick up a copy.

Q. My mother really enjoys the late Jackie Wilson. I've bought her all the albums I can find. I've been told he sang with a group. Do you know the name?

Jean M.
Levittown, Pa.

A: The only group that comes to mind is Billy Ward & The Dominoes. Check out their Twenty-One Original Greatest Hits on Deluxe Records (1986).
