Sethos Temple holds Jubilee Day service

Sethos Temple, No. 170, celebrated "Jubilee Day Service" on Sunday, June 14 at St. James A.M.E. Church, where the Rev. Carrington Carter is the pastor. The celebration commemorated the victory won in the Supreme Court June 3, 1929. On that day, the Supreme Court decided that the members of the Temple were indeed Shriners and entitled them to continue their activities as such. The month of June, as a result, is a time for jubilation, consecration, and rededication to the high principles of the Shriners. Middle D. Glymph Jr. is the illustrious potentate of Sethos Temple, No. 170.

Nat'l conference on black men in crisis to be held

A national conference focusing on the black male will be held August 28-30 at the General Board of Discipleship and Scarritt-Bennett Center in Nashville, Tenn. The conference is the first of its kind where experts from all over the United States will discuss issues affecting the progress of the black male and solutions to the demise of the black male in America.

The theme, "Black Men in Crisis — Regaining Our Balance" will provide discussion on many kinds of racism that continue to deny and divide black men from equal opportunity as a people. Also, other topics that affect black males will be discussed, such as male and female relationships, self-worth and self-esteem, education and skill-building, Christian faith and spirituality, and substance and drug abuse. In essence, the conference will educate people on solutions to the crisis facing the black male.

The registration fee for attending the conference is $50. The deadline for submitting fees is August 20. For additional information on hotels, transportation, etc. contact Calvin Guthrie at 661-1527 or Catherine Harrub at (615) 340-7128.
