

Urban League looking for photographers

The Winston-Salem Urban League is looking for amateur photographers to capture on film moments of "equal opportunity" for the first annual Equal Opportunity photo contest.

Sponsored by Classic Cadillac-GMC Truck of Winston-Salem, the photo contest is the newest component of the Equal

LEOA holds its annual conference

The North State Law Enforcement Officer's Association is holding its 40th Annual Re-training Conference at the Marquee of Winston-Salem, now through June 20, 1992.

The Association is a non-profit, non-partisan, professional organization dedicated to improving the quality of life in the communities served through training and community service. The association also works towards eliminating discriminatory practices as they affect law enforcement.

The highlights of the conference include a luncheon today at 11 a.m. where participants will be welcomed by city officials during opening ceremonies. Also, there will be an awards banquet and candlelight memorial service on Saturday, June 20 at 7 p.m.

Throughout the conference, there will be training workshops and sharing of ideas among professional law enforcement personnel from throughout the state of North Carolina.

Opportunity Day celebration, which will be held Sept. 10, 1992.

Photos should convey the theme of "equal opportunity." Entries will be judged on creativity, composition, and expression of the theme.

The top three photographs will be selected by a panel of judges.

The winning photograph will be featured on the 1992

Equal Opportunity Day Dinner promotional materials, tabloid and dinner program.

All entries in the contest will be displayed at the Equal Opportunity Day Dinner at the MC Benton Convention Center.

The winning photographer will receive $100 and two tickets to the dinner. Second and third place winners will receive $75 and $50, respectively, and two tickets each to the dinner.

Entries must be submitted to Tracy Prosser, public relations director, at the Winston-Salem Urban League, 201 W. Fifth St., by 5 p.m. July 31.

The photographer's name, address and phone number as well as the names of any identifiable people in the photograph, should be included.

For more information and a copy of the official rules, call Tracy Prosser at 725-5614.
