

Boyz N The Hood beat Rams in OT

By Chronicle Staff

Even though it's just the second week of the season, Boyz N The Hood and Say No have started to establish themselves as the early frontrunners in the Big Apple Basketball League.

Boyz remained unbeaten by winning in overtime, while Say No won its game by a basket. In other games, Chris' Crushers started with a big rush to win by a comfortable margin. In the meantime, the Celtics did as they pleased in their lop-sided victory.

The following is a recap of last Saturday's action at the Hanes Hoisery Recreation Center.

Boyz get the win
Boyz N The Hood took their game to a higher level in overtime and came away with a 100-88 win over the Rams.

The Boyz put the game away with a blistering 17-5 OT run that the Rams never recovered from.

The Rams' Reggie Gaines forced the extra period when he hit three free throws after being fouled on a three-point shot attempt with 0:01 left in regulation. Gaines shots tied the game at 83-all.

Boyz N The Hood had five people who scored in double figures. Leroy Williams had the sharp shooting eye, ending the game with 27 points. Nate Byrd chipped in with 13 points and Vincent Brown added 11. Michael Thomas and Charles Douthitt tallied 10 points each.

Gaines was the top scorer for the game and the Rams with 34 points. Barry Chunn fired away for 20 points, while Lawrence Baskings and Jacques Bitting scored 10 points each. The Rams led 39-36 at the half.

Say No tops Players
Say No and the Players dueled from starting tip to final buzzer with neither team conceding anything.

However, Say No got the best of it, emerging as 82-80 victors.

Say No maintained the lead by the slimmest of margins, taking a 41-39 lead at the half. Ronnie Christian and Reggie Torrence led a balanced offensive attack, contributing 14 points apiece. Dwayne Morgan and Winzo Ceasar scored 11 points each.

For the Players, Milton Vaughn was the top producer, leading the way with 20 points.

Andes Arvine followed up with 18 points and Mike Cole added 14. Terry Strickland scored 13 points.

Crushers spank Pacers

Chris' Crushers showed no mercy in the first half and that set the tone for a 77-63 win over the Pacers. The Pacers rallied from a 44-27 halftime deficit, but weren't able to complete their comeback.

Jeff Jones led CC's offense with 23 points. He got ample assistance from Derrick Worrels and Bill Tibbs' who combined to score 32 points (16 each).

The Pacers got over half of their total offensive output from Jeff Walton and Kevin Strickland. Walton topped the scoring list with 20 points and Strickland added 18.

Celtics by a bunch

The Celtics scored 65 points in the second half to subdue FPA, 104-58.

Three Celts scored 20 or more points to lead the way. Kemp Phillips led the charge with 28 points. Flagg Stanfield and Daryl Schnoes contributed 23 and 22 points respectively.

Reggie Doster's 19 points led the way for FPA. Anthony Archie chipped in with 10 points.

WESTON TRAVEL

RAM OF THE WEEK

Weston Travel is pleased to recognize Paulette Marshall as our Ram of the Week. Paulette grew up in Winston-Salem and is a 1969 summa cum laude graduate of WSSU. Her honor status is even more noteworthy because she was a wife and a mother during her undergraduate years. She was the High Point Schools' 1990 Teacher of the Year. Paulette's alumna activities include being a member of the WSSU Centennial Commission and past president of the WSSU National Alumni Association. She and husband Walter are celebrating 26 years of marriage.

Paulette Marshall

Reflecting upon her years at WSSU, Paulette credits her teachers for excellent instruction. She says, "WSSU had a great tradition of producing highly-qualified teachers. The school had me well prepared."

WE'VE EXPANDED OUR RECYCLING PROGRAM TO INCLUDE EVERY TOM, DICK & HAIRY

Recycle Today, Winston-Salem's curbside recycling program, now accepts clean 100% aluminum pet food cans and selected plastic litter jugs.

Pet Food Cans: Before placing your cans in the recycling bin, look for the words "recyclable aluminum" on the labels.

Or, test your cans with a magnet. If the magnet doesn't stick, they're aluminum.

Plastic Kitty Litter Jugs: You can recycle the opaque (cloudy) plastic kitty litter jugs that are shaped like milk containers. No transparent/clear, solid white or solid colored containers, please.

If you have any questions, call the Recycling Hotline at 722-BINS.
