

Dr. Hay Retires From Galilee Missionary Baptist Church

Dr. Warnie C. Hay ended a 32 year career as the third pastor of Galilee Missionary Baptist Church on Sunday, Dec. 27.

Dr. A.D. Logan, a son of Galilee, who currently serves with the General Baptist State Convention in Raleigh, was guest minister for the 11 a.m. worship service. All choirs sang for this special service. Former members living in other cities, who attended this service, were: Barbara Rogers, John "Buddy" Cook, Martha Jones, Anita B. Ingram and John Brown. At the close of the service, the church family, auxiliaries and other individuals presented Dr. and Mrs. Hay with gifts and accolades.

Immediately following the service, the ladies of Galilee held a reception for Anna Hay. A brief program preceded the repast.

One of the major events for this month was a retirement ban-

Deltas Complete Year Of Activities

The Winston-Salem Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is winding up December, have completed a year full of activities.

Most recently, the chapter was involved with a variety of community services projects.

As part of its School America effort, the alumnae chapter sponsored an in-house book drive. The books, for children in grades K-5, were then distributed to children in one of the city's housing projects. Several members of the sorority volunteered their time to read the donated books during a reading session held in the housing unit.

In keeping with the spirit of Christmas giving and sharing, the alumnae chapter also collected toi-lety items, socks and other items and prepared more than 85 care packages for nursing home residents. The care packages were delivered to the nursing home Saturday, December 5, following the group's regular monthly meeting.

Las Vegas Night, the Deltas annual event to raise fund for college scholarships, played to a sold-out audience on December 19 at the convention center.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority is an international community service organization founded in 1913 at Howard University. Its members are college-educated women dedicated to a program of sharing membership skills in the community interest.

Louise Smith is president of the local chapter.
