

Winners And Losers From JV And Varsity Basketball

A 9-0 run at the start of the fourth quarter propelled the visiting Parkland boys to a 51-41 victory over R.J. Reynolds Friday on the losers court in junior varsity action.

Mt. Tabor's boys won twice last week, edging Parkland 62-59 Tuesday, and also scored a 54-36 victory over Greensboro Dudley. West Forsyth defeated Greensboro Grimsley, 66-45 and Forsyth Country Day romped to an 84-34 triumph over Elkin.

In girls action, West Forsyth downed South Rowan, 47-38, in the first of two wins. West crushed Grimsley, 69-10 in Friday's game while Parkland bested R.J. Reynolds 45-24.

Taryne Payne scored 14 points and Molly Wray had 13 in West's win over South Rowan. The victory Friday over Grimsley boosted their overall record to 7-2 on the season.

Chris Vernon and Daniel Webster each scored 20 points in Mt. Tabor's win over the junior Mustangs. Webster took scoring honors with 18 points in the win over Dudley as West improved its overall record to 9-2 and 3-0 in league play.

FCD registered upped its record to 6-1 as it scored the first 14 points against Elkin. The winners held a 40-14 halftime advantage as Steve Neace led all scorers with 18 points. FCD has three other players in double figures and everyone on the team scored.

Titcus Pettigrew and David Modica scored 15 and 11 points respectively in the West Forsyth win over Grimsley, giving them a 6-3 overall mark and 2-1 league play.

Parkland's L'Tonya Samuels scored 21 points and Latasha McCall had 8 points in an easy win over Reynolds.

The winners held a 13-5 first quarter lead. Parkland increased its advantage to 26-11 at halftime. Led by Kwana Glenn's 8 points, Reynolds cut the margin to 12 points, 34-22 as the fourth quarter got underway.

But Parkland's speed was no match for the Junior Demons who only managed 4 points on the final eight minutes while Parkland scored 11. It was the first league win for Parkland, now 1-2 and 4-8 overall. Reynolds fell to 2-1 and 2-5 overall.

Kinard Thomas scored 9 field goals and went 4-for-6 from the foul line for 22 points in Parkland boys' victory-over Reynolds.

The two teams played almost even for much of the contest. Parkland took an early 8-4 lead, but Reynolds came back to go up, 9-8. A 3-pointer by Rodney Minor gave Parkland a 13-10 lead and the Mustangs prevailed at halftime, 20-18 after leading at one point, 20-12.

The two teams were tied three times in the third quarter as Kirk Champey had 5 points for Reynolds while Thomas scored 6 points for Parkland, which held a 2-point advantage going into the final 8 minutes of play.

A rebound goal by Lee Phillips tied the game at 32 all to start the fourth quarter.

Thomas's free throw and a fast break basket by Randy Martin gave Parkland a 35-32 lead with 6:32 remaining to play.

Devin Isaiah gave Parkland a 5-point margin and Thomas hit on successive buckets for a 41-32 lead and Reynolds could never quite catch up with 4:24 left.

A pair of free throws by Michael Bonapart made it 41-34 with 2:47 to go.

Thomas got his final points on a 3-point play, a rebound goal and free throw as Parkland led, 44-34.

Derrick Roseboro, who was high scorer for Reynolds with 12 points, hit for a field goal and Dennis Gantt scored on a steal to make it 44-38 with 1:38 remaining, but the losers could get no closer.

Champey and Chris McCoy both finished with 8 points for Reynolds while Martin added 7 points for the winners.

Parkland improved to 6-5 overall and 1-2 in the league while Reynolds is now 6-7 and 1-3.

WESTON TRAVEL

RAM OF THE WEEK

Weston Travel is pleased to recognize Shondra "Redd" McSwain as our Ram of the Week.

All the way from Atlanta, Georgia, McSwain has brought her award-winning talents to Winston-Salem State University's Lady Rams basketball team.

At starting forward, she's been described as a very physical player, and a good rebounder. McSwain averages 9.3 points a game, as well as 8.4 rebounds. Shondra is destined to become an excellent player in the CIAA. She's been named CIAA rookie of the year three times this season.

Although Shondra is considered a rookie, she's definitely not new to the game of basketball. Before joining the Lady Rams, Shondra received such high school honors as Most Improved and M.V.P. for Atlanta Metro AAU.

Shondra is a freshman majoring in Physical Therapy. In her spare time she enjoys styling hair. Shondra credits her parents and coaches as being her true inspiration.

Weston Travel congratulates Shondra "Redd" McSwain as our Ram of the Week.

Fletcher Dominated Lynchburg Invitational Meet

The Belles of Bennett College, led by freshman sprint sensation Judyann Fletcher, dominated the Lynchburg invitational meet.

Against teams from Bridgewater College, Mary Washington, Davidson, Washington and Lee, Lynchburg College, Shaw University and Virginia State, The Belles accounted for three victories (in meet record times), a second, a third and two fourth place finishes in the sprints, hurdles and jumps.

Fletcher set the tone for the meet by winning the 55 meter dash with a time of 7.24 seconds (Bettering the NCAA championship qualifying standard of 7.32 seconds). She then joined teammates Kera Green, Tammy Crawford and Marsha Hawkins to win the 400 meter relay. In the final race of the meet, Paula Johnson (Dudley High) anchored the trio of Fletcher, Green and Hawkins to an impressive 100 meter win in the 1600 meter relay.

Hawkins finished second in the Hurdles, with Crawford Fourth. The duo also competed in the long jump, placing third and fourth respectively. Green dashed to a fourth place in the 55 behind Fletcher.

All five athletes turned in performances that qualified them for the Mason Dixon Championships to be held on February 14, at Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, Va.

Qualifying for the 1600 relay were Green (55 M Dash); Hawkins (long jump and 55M Hurdles); and Crawford (Long Jump and hurdles). Fletcher has already met qualifying standards in the 55 and 200 meter dash.

The next meet will be the Pepsi invitational on February 6 at Virginia Technical College.

Black Family To Be Heralded and Celebrated

By SHERIDAN HILL
Chronicle Assistant Editor

Gloria Frazier wants blacks and whites to understand "why African-Americans do some of the things they do." She hopes a sharing of cultures occurs at the first annual Conference on the African-American Family next month. The two-day event is sponsored by the Winston-Salem Urban League and will be held Feb. 12-13 at the Holiday Inn North.

As director of family development for the Urban League, she finds it easy to articulate the importance of the black family and how the African heritage plays into current society.

"There was a time before slavery," she said recently, "when we were known to be mathematical and scientific geniuses. We need to tell that history, because it isn't being told in public schools. We need to know where we came from. Black people are doing great things now, too."

The conference will feature some of the area's most respected speakers and personalities, including Dr. Deborea Winfrey of Winston-Salem State University, the Rev. Carlton Eversley, the Rev. John Mendez, Dr. Ravonda Dalton-Rann of the Winston-Salem Found-dation, entrepreneur Joe Dudley, and staff of the Urban League, including CEO D. Smith.

Gloria Frazier

Frazier also wants to educate the public about the work of Urban League.

"You come in here with a problem," she said, "and we have people who take it apart and figure out what's wrong. That's just being holistic. We hug, we laugh, we cry with our participants."

The public is invited to submit names of community members who have made positive contributions in these categories: outstanding African-American pastor, family, single parent, male, female, elder, youth, and economic development.

Names must be submitted to Cleo Solomon at Urban League by Jan. 29. Winners will be announced at an awards ceremony at noon on Jan. 13. Conference fees are $60. and $100. for one and two days, respectively. Urban League is asking 20 local corporations to sponsor scholarships to the program.
