

Hanes Hosiery Basketball Action

By DEBY JO FERGUSON
Chronicle Sports Writer

Hanes Hosiery Recreation Center, under Director Art Blevins, has 141 kids playing basketball this season in four different leagues.

Blevins is assisted at Hanes Hosiery by: Gary Lash, Queen Wright and some dedicated volunteers.

Volunteers are as follows: Clarence Hall, Danny Womack, Larry Meador, Terry Beasley, Courtland Clark, Terry Booe, Willie Guarantano, Chris Spence and Xavier McCarter, who serve as coaches and officials for the various leagues.

According to Blevins, Roadway Trucking Company donated money to the gym for each kid's jersey.

The program is free to all participants. If you would like to help out or participate, call Art Blevins at 727-2428.

WESTON TRAVEL RAM OF THE WEEK

Weston Travel is pleased to recognize Corey McPherson as Our Ram of the Week.

Move over Winton Marsalis and make way for a rising star by the name of Corey McPherson. "I think I know what people want to hear when it comes to today's music," said McPherson. At age 22, Corey already has his sights on becoming a premiere trumpet player, and joining the ranks of such greats as Dizzy Gillespie and Miles Davis.

A native of Fayetteville, N.C., Corey is a senior majoring in music education. Along with being an honor student at W.S.U., Corey has also received several scholarships, and the Francis L. Atkins Scholarship.

After graduation, Corey plans to teach music on the high school level. He eventually would like to get into studio recording and production. In his spare time, Corey enjoys writing music, singing, dancing and serving the community with his fraternity, Alpha Phi Alpha Inc.

Weston Travel congratulates Corey McPherson as our "Ram Of The Week" as we look forward to a winning season.
