"We need to reorder the issues and make education a priority."

William H. Gray III
President and CEO
United Negro College Fund

William Gray has launched a new career. After 12 1/2 years in the U.S. Congress, he is now President and CEO of the United Negro College Fund. The 48-year-old organization supports 41 private, historically Black colleges and universities that enroll over 51,000 students, many of whom receive UNCF financial assistance.

Ideally suited to lead the College Fund, Gray is working to ensure that education is our country's number one priority.

Anheuser-Busch supports the work of the UNCF and its member institutions, just as we support other educational and social programs, community projects and minority businesses.

At Anheuser-Busch we're committed to a better quality of life. For everyone.
