E's Salon

I am Edith Williams, owner of E's Salon. "First in Elegance and Hair Perfection" has always been my ultimate goal. Fourteen years in hair design, certainly qualifies me as some what of an expert in the hair profession, yet there is always something more to learn. Coming from a military family, helped me in staying firm in my determination to press on and become another success story. "I give thanks to God for all, for without Him I would not have been able to come this far. It is my desire to help and inspire other hair designers that faith in God, and determination, makes a good formula for success."

"Contrary to what you have been led to believe by decades of advertising, everyone is not born beautiful. But everyone is born with potential. And that's not the potential to be another movie star or supermodel. We're talking about the potential each person has to realize their own individual style."

WESTON TRAVEL

RAM OF THE WEEK

Weston Travel is pleased to recognize William "CC" Carter as our Ram Of The Week.

"To know me is to know me well. To know me not is to only assume," said Carter. So, who is William "CC" Carter? Well, he's a man with a flexible plan that is destined to lead him straight to the top in the radio/television industry.

Born and bred right here in Winston-Salem, William is a senior majoring in Mass Communications. Along with being an honor student and a member of the board of trustees, Carter is also president of the student government association for WSSU.

William has been working in radio as an announcer since the age of 15. He started at WAIR, then moved to WAAA, and he's now at Power 97, WQMG. "Anyone can play music, but it's the presentation and the delivery that makes you a success," said Carter.

Carter's ultimate goal in life is to have his own nationally syndicated talk show, similar to the show of his mentor, Arsenio Hall.

Weston Travel congratulates William "CC" Carter as our Ram Of The Week.
