

Sloan Receives Scholarship

Melanie Sloan, a 12th grade student at Carver High School, has received a Joseph G. Gordon scholarship to Wake Forest University. This scholarship is awarded to African-American students who show exceptional achievement and promise of leadership. Her current class rank is second out of the 193 seniors enrolled at Carver.

In addition to the Gordon scholarship, Sloan was awarded a scholarship to Clemson University, she was a nominee for the Moorehead Scholarship, and received the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen's Award. She plans to major in actuarial science. She is the daughter of Lois Sloan and the grandmother of Evelyn Sloan and the late Rev. Louis Roger Sloan Sr.

Club Presents Service Award

The Old Salem Sertoma Club has named Janet Peace Wheeler of Winston-Salem as the recipient of its 1993 Service to Mankind Award.

The group presented Wheeler a plaque during a luncheon at the Best Western Regency Hotel last Thursday. The award honors a non-Sertoman who has made outstanding contributions to the community as a volunteer.

Wheeler was selected for her active involvement in leadership positions in various community organizations. During her tenure as president of the Phi Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, she assisted in the efforts to establish quality, affordable housing and a community center at the Ivy Arms Apartments and Clubhouse in East Winston.

She is a native of Henderson, N.C. and a graduate of Hampton University. She is the director of Research and Development Planning and Administration at R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

NAUW Hosts Workshop

Members of the National Association of University Women, Winston-Salem branch, conducted a workshop Saturday at Mt. Cavalry Holiness Church for elementary and middle school students. The workshop was presented in two parts, study skills and self-esteem.

The students shared positive and negative experiences they had encountered.

Educational games were played. Books were given as prizes. Each participant received a book and a list of helpful hints on how to become a better student.

The participants were: Shekitha Lowallen, Kaneisha Creasy, Demetrius Lowallen, Princess Hardison, Wanda Lowallen, Joe Martin, Tashaika Creasy, Joshua Lowallen, Tameika Smith and Latoya Wilson.

Wilhelmina B. Long is president of the local branch.

St. James Church to Observe Missionary Day

Missionary Day will be observed at St. James A.M.E. Church, Sunday. The theme is: "Called, Committed, Compelled to Save."

The Ethel Cooper Missionary Society and the Young People's Department will sponsor a "Prayer Breakfast" at 8:30 A.M. Expressions of "What Prayer Means to Me" will be led by April Broadway.

Nigel Alston, superintendent of Sunday School, will teach from the topic "Rebirth Into Eternal Life at 9:30 a.m." Brother Leroy Mitchell, licentiate, will give a brief review of the lesson during the re-assembly period. Daynell Mitchell will preside over the 11:00 A.M. worship service. Vernadine Carter, is the featured speaker.

Carter, is a native of Charleston, S. C. She was nurtured, both in the church and around preachers. Her grandmother, mother, and the majority of her aunts are preachers and pastors in the Reformed House of God, which is the church she was reared in.

She was educated in the Charleston County Public Schools and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics Education from Morgan State University. Among her other talents are: seamstress and clothing designer, wedding consultant and bridal gown designer, florist, cosmetologist and manicurist and church singer.

Her motto is "I know I'm not perfect, but I'm striving for perfection every day of my life."

Vernadine and the Rev. Carrington Carter are the proud parents of Byron Andrew and Brittany Tekoa.

Clarene Stewart president of the Sara Allen Missionary Society, will introduce Carter.

Other activities on program will be the dedication service of the newly organized Ethel Cooper Missionary Society, and the recognition of all the senior citizens by Betty Terry.

Following the morning worship service, the Senior Usher Board will sponsor a "Fellowship Tea." Mr. Lewis Smith, president of the usher board, will lead the congregation to the multi-purpose room for this "Fellowship."

Better Neighbors

The Winston-Salem Foundation recently honored communities who participate in the "Neighbors for Better Neighborhoods" program. The program offers technical assistance to neighborhood organizations to improve the quality of life in participating neighborhoods and build a sense of community spirit. Pictured (l. to r.) are: Donna Rader of the Winston-Salem Foundation; Georgia Smith of Skyline Village Tenant Association; Mattie Young of Cleveland Avenue Residents Council; Jawara K. Lumumba, guest speaker; Sarah Webster of the Happy Hill Resident Council/Better You, Better Me Program; Wanda McIntyre of Kimberly Park Terrace Inc.; Kay Lawson of Southgate Tenants' Association; and Henry Carter of the Winston-Salem Foundation.

Solid Rock Precinct Elects Officers

By RUDOLPH V. BOONE SR. Special to the Chronicle

The Solid Rock Baptist Church Precinct (Democratic Party) met on March 4 and elected officers for a two-year term as follows: Rudolph V. Boone Sr. (chairman), Naomi Jones (1st vice chairperson), Dr. William Rice (2nd vice chairman), Lonnie Nesmith (3rd vice chairman), John Cloud (secretary), Mamie S. Johnson (treasurer), Dorothy Ross (registrar), Sarah J. Boone (judge) and Joseph R.

Daniels (special registrar). The members also elected a precinct committee and delegates to the upcoming Democratic County Convention scheduled for April 17 at the Sawtooth Building. Precinct officers and street/block captains will be soliciting contributions from the precinct members to pay its annual dues to the party and for precinct members to pay their annual dues, and for precinct expenses.

There are several streets without captains, so it is very important for interested voters to come forward and volunteer to serve. If no one comes to your home in the next week to talk about precinct matters and ask for your contribution, please call one of the officers to pick up your contribution or deliver it to one of them at the earliest possible time. The Solid Rock Baptist Church Precinct was in the top ten precincts (out of 95 precincts) in voting and percentage voting.

If there are persons in the precinct who need to register, call 767-4087.

Heart & Estrogen/Progestin Replacement Study

We are looking for women who have heart disease to participate in a new study — one of the first national studies for and about women with heart disease.

The Section on Cardiology of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Wake Forest University, is one of 15 centers across the country conducting this vital research on post-menopausal women with heart disease. This study will test whether or not a combination of hormone replacement will be helpful to women with heart disease. If you are past menopause, have coronary heart disease, and are interested in helping with this research, please call:

Third Annual Hope Du Jour March 30

Eat out and help feed hungry people in our community. March 30, is the Third Annual Hope du Jour, which benefits Crisis Control Ministry.

People who dine at participating restaurants and businesses on March 30 will not only enjoy a good meal but will help families and individuals in need of food. The participating restaurants will donate 10 percent of their income on March 30 to Crisis Control Ministry. Last year, over 130 restaurants participated. A list of Hope du Jour restaurants will be available on flyers and in media advertisements.

Also you can watch and listen for information about Hope du Jour on WSJS radio and WXII television.

Crisis Control Ministry has become Forsyth County's largest provider of emergency relief for individuals and families with urgent needs for food, fuel, clothing, rent and medicine.

Join this annual community tradition and eat out to help in the fight against hunger.

Spread the word about Hope du Jour to your friends, and fellow workers. Keep Hope du Jour in mind as you plan staff meetings, business lunches, and birthday celebrations.

For more information contact Laurelyn Dossett at 723-2448.
