

The Special Children's School

John A. Piazza (right), chief executive officer of Sara Lee Hosiery, exchanges a warm laugh with three-year-old Nathan Downey at The Special Children's School.

Piazza is the recent recipient of Sara Lee Corporation's Community Service Leadership Award for leading Sara Lee Hosiery's exemplary corporate contributions program, and for his commitment to serving the community.

As part of the Award, Sara Lee Corporation donated $25,000 to the nonprofit organization of Piazza's choice — The Special Children's School.

Teach Your Kids a Lesson they'll Never Forget.

Regular exercise benefits everybody — parents and kids alike. Best of all, the good fitness habits your children develop now could give them a healthier, happier lifetime. Just find those physical fitness activities you all enjoy and exercise at least three times a week. Start today. Make fitness a family affair.

UNC Board of Governors Elects WSSU Trustees

The University of North Carolina Board of Governors on March 12 elected the following trustees to Winston-Salem State University: Montages "Tan" Kirby, director of workforce diversity and team training at Sara Lee Knit Products and a 1975 graduate of Winston-Salem State; Timothy A. Newsome, software developer, Newtec Business Solutions, Dallas. Newsome graduated from Winston-Salem State in 1980; and John A. Piazza, CEO, Sara Lee Hosiery.

C. Vaughn Jr., attorney with Petree, Stockton & Robinson.

Each will serve a four-year term, beginning July 1.

The board also reelected Robert

St. Paul Women Host Mission Study

The United Methodist Women of St. Paul Church will sponsor a Mission Study this Saturday. Registration will begin at 9:15 a.m. and will be led by Ruth Glenn and Jane Williams.

This year's study is entitled "Christians in the Middle East." The Rev. James E. McCallum of Greensboro is the coordinator. Facilitators who will assist him in the course are Shirley Dunlap, Jimmie Sudler, Nancy Wilks and Bettye Woodburn.

Others on the agenda include Gwendolyn Ashley, who will deliver the welcome and occasion, and Carrie M. Mayfield, who will lead the group in inspirational periods. Sudler, who is president of the United Methodist Women, will introduce all participants.

Mary Perkins is in charge of the printed program and displays to be used in the session. Mary Michaux is chair of hospitality. Margie Toomer and Margaret Allen will prepare native dishes of the Middle East. Helen Hairston will assist McCallum. Woodburn will show a video entitled "After the Storm" which introduces the region's history, geography, culture, religions, economics and politics.

The Rev. Paul F. Perkins Sr. is pastor.

Know Your Neighbor Club has Monthly Meeting

The Northwood Estates Know-Your-Neighbor Club will have its monthly meeting on Monday, at (7:00 p.m.) at the Carl Russell Recreation Center. The club sponsored a very successful exhibit of materials, photo books, scrapbooks, yearbooks, photographs of historical value, relating to schools, organizations, locally and nationally. The exhibit was designed to enlighten viewers of our heritage and those contributing to that richness. This exhibit was a part of the "R. V. Boone Collection."

The next project of the club is gradually coming to fruition, in the form of a "Reading Room" at the Carl Russell Recreation Center. A number of books and magazines have been donated already. Persons wishing to contribute items or money to this cause should contact the president, Mrs. Gertrude Murchison on Airport Road.

Membership in the organization is open to residents in the Northwood Estates community. We welcome new members throughout the year.

Winston-Salem Branch

NAACP Holds Career Fair

The Winston-Salem Branch of the NAACP will sponsor a Regional Career Fair April 13 at the Benton Convention Center, 301 W. Fifth St.

The Career Fair will target all areas of employment, with emphasis on sales, management, (Restaurant/Retail), engineering, computer science, and health care.

The NAACP is the oldest and largest civil-rights organization in America. It is committed to assisting minorities with gaining greater access to better employment opportunities.

Likewise, it is committed to assisting business and industry with resolving diversity issues in the workforce.

Forsyth Court Volunteers Has Tickets for All-Star

Forsyth Court Volunteers is a non-profit United Way agency that works with juvenile delinquents referred by the court system. The agency matches volunteers in a one on one relationship with youthful offenders, sends volunteers to the youth detention center to present programs, and take young people on a prison preview. In addition, the agency has young offenders work to pay back their victims with monetary restitution and the community with volunteer work.

The income for its monetary restitution fund, from which young people 10-16 years of age earn the money to pay their victims, is raised by the annual ACC All-Star Basketball Classic. Tickets are on sale now for this 15th annual event to be held on April 14 at the Coliseum Annex.

The cost of tickets is $19, and they may be purchased by contacting Forsyth Court Volunteers at 724-9923.

Seminar to be Held

Making a difference "In The Fight Against Drug And Alcohol Abuse" will be the topic of the next Elected Officials Seminar scheduled for March 25, at 6 p.m. at the Club House at Tanglewood Park.

All elected officials in Forsyth and Davie Counties have been invited. Program presenters include Linda Carter, chairperson, Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Coalition on Drug and Alcohol Abuse; Mary Hodgen, president, FIRST; George Sweat, chief of police, city of Winston-Salem; Nancy Dominique, director, Support Services, Davie County Schools; Bert Wood, president, Step One Inc.; and Robert Clemmer, principal, Carver High School.

The purpose of the Elected Officials Seminar program is to provide an opportunity for all elected officials to meet informally on a regular basis for educational programs, discussion of issues of common concern and social interaction. The program is initiated by the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service in Forsyth County and Davie County. Financial sponsorship for the March 25 event is provided by the Sara Lee Corporation.

1ST PAWN CORPORATION
BORROW BUY OR BROWSE
 2828 UNIVERSITY PARKWAY COLLEGE PLAZA CENTER
 MONDAY-SATURDAY • 9-9 • SUNDAY 1-6

The Original Country Peddler Show 1ST ANNUAL
 One of a kind 18th & 19th century heirlooms of the future
Art, Craft, & Folk Show
 Highpoint, NC
 Marketsquare Convention Center
 Exhibits In Room-Like Settings!
 Off of 40 take Exit 210 onto 68. Follow signs to the Convention Center.
 March 19 (Friday) 4pm-9pm
 March 20 (Saturday) 9am-5pm
 March 21 (Sunday) 11am-4pm
 Adults $4.00
 2-12 yrs. $1.50
 For more information: American Memories, Inc. P.O. Box 249 Decatur, MI 49045 • (800) 532-FOLK

Craft and Art Classes for all ages and interests begin April 13.
 Sign up for more than one class, and save 10%
 Call 723-7395 today for a class catalog.
SANTOOTH CENTER FOR VISUAL ART
 The Triad's Place to Create
 225 N. Marshall Street Winston-Salem, NC 27101 919-723-7395

START HERE.
 Wake Forest University offers evening and executive MBA programs designed for experienced managers. Find out how to get started in these successful programs by attending our information session.
WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY MBA
Thursday, March 25 5:30-7:30 P.M.
Room 1124 Worrell Professional Center Wake Forest University
 For more information about Wake Forest MBA, call (919) 759-4583 or 1-800-428-6012.

Bruce hardwood floors
 A Division of Triangle Pacific Corp
SAVE ON New NO-WAX Hardwood Floors
3/4" SOLID OAK HARDWOOD
 • Available in 3 shades
 • All with 5 coats (no wax)
 Dura Luster Finish
$375 SQ. FT.
3/8" LAMINATED OAK HARDWOOD
 • Available in 4 shades
 • All with 5 coats (no wax)
 Dura Luster Finish
$440 SQ. FT.
 Need installation - Let Precision Trained installers do the job right - The first time
 Samples brought to your home. Free In-House Estimates.
PRECISION Decorating Center
 2701 Peters Creek Pkwy. Mon. thru Fri. 8-6, Sat. 9-5 • 785-3625