

Kid's Sports Thoughts

"Oh my goodness, just let 'em make that basket and that ice-cream is mine for sure."

James Monterico Hickman, son of Marnie Hickman and James Banner.

Alexander Heads for Chowan Team

James G. Garrison, head football coach of Chowan College, has announced that Talmadge K. "T.K." Alexander will attend Chowan College for the 1993-94 academic school year and participate in football.

T.K. is a graduating senior from East Forsyth High School and his anticipated major is pre-engineering.

He was a 1992 Metro 4-A Honorable Mention and is the vice president of the Senior Dean's Council.

Garrison said he is very happy that T.K. will be a part of the continued winning tradition of Chowan football."

Garrison was the third winningest coach in junior college football with a record of 187-148-12.

Chowan will begin the 1993-94 football season competing as a NCAA Division III independent.

Alcorn State Braves Will get a chance to Appear on Black Entertainment Network

The Alcorn State Braves will get the chance to showcase Heisman candidate Steve 'Air II' McNair and all of the defending SWAC champions when they meet Alabama State in Montgomery, Ala. in a game that will be televised live over the Black Entertainment Television Network.

Besides the Braves and Hornets, Southern and South Carolina State will be on national cable television Sept. 25 in the 100 Black Men Classic in Atlanta; Jackson State and South Carolina State in the Circle City Classic Oct. 2 in Indianapolis; and Fort Valley State and Albany State in the Fountain City Classic in Columbus, Ga. on Nov. 13.

Steve 'Air II' McNair is a graduate of Mt. Olive High and has the record for the most interceptions in a career with 30.

He was SWAC Offensive Player of the Year during his freshman and sophomore years, Sheridan SWAC Player of the Year; Pigskin Club of Washington D.C., SWAC Play of the Year, and Sports Illustrated Offensive Player of the Year.

McNair led the NCAA 1-AA in total offense the past season and completed 189 of 338 passes for 24 touchdowns and 2,895 yards in 1991. In 1992 McNair completed 231 of 419 passes for 3,541 yards and 29 touchdowns.

McNair also tied the ASU record for touchdown passes in a game with six against Jacksonville State. He also passed for 500 yards, completing 41 passes, and rushed for 49 yards.
