Rho Zeta Chapter Holds Annual Soiree

Michelle Cloud, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cloud Jr., was crowned "Miss Zeta Enchante" at Carver High School last Saturday during the Eleventh Annual Soiree of Rho Zeta Chapter, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc.

The program began with a piano prelude by Soror Dollye Mack. This was followed by a welcome, an explanation of the occasion and the presentation of a plaque to Cheryl Super, the "1993 Zeta Woman of the Year," by Soror Emily Harper, basileus of the Rho Zeta Chapter.

There were performances by guest artists, Louis Price, Fay Hauser and Sierra Hauser-Price. Louis Price, a former lead singer with the Temptations, encouraged the audience to participate in songs such as "Under the Boardwalk," "Imagination" and "My Girl."

Faye Hauser presented excerpts from poems and portions of her original poems. Then came the time for "Miss Zeta Enchante of 1992, Chrystal Gerald, to be recognized and to relinquish her crown. In her farewell speech, she expressed her appreciation to Zeta and the community for having supported her.

Following the farewell speech, the contestants and their parents were presented. The girls then performed their specialty dance, which was choreographed by Soror Vivienne Conley. Following the crowning, a reception was held in the Carver band room to honor the new "Miss Zeta Enchante" and her court, including Monika L. Hayes, the first runner-up, and Tamara Springs, second runner-up.

Presenters for the evening were Cleopatra L. Soloman of the Urban League Community Service Program, and Arthur N. Boone Jr., a supervisor of R.J. Reynolds and the producer and narrator of "Give it to Me Straight."

Ushers for the evening, who were all former contestants, were: Brandi Caldwell, Jamille Clayborn, Mya McMillian, LaTasha Clark, Nicolle Dillard, Kyra Marshall and James Sharpe.

Its Time To Take Another Look at the Ledges

If you haven't visited The Ledges apartments lately, it's time to take another look! Patricia Shelton, new resident manager, is very excited about the results of a joint effort between management (United Dominion Realty Trust), and Ledges residents to create an attractive, safe and happy environment for all Ledges families.

A walk through The Ledges shows that the management cares about the residents and the property. The landscaping is well maintained, the pool is attractively outfitted with deck furniture, and the two playgrounds give the definite feeling of family.

A 24-hour task force, headed by Kevin Murphy, gives the residents a sense of peace and security. In addition, all residents are issued ID cards, parking permits and pool passes to insure the safety and protection of residents.

The Ledges has one, two and three bedroom units with gas heat and hot water furnished, and two laundry rooms on premises. Furnished apartments are also available. Long and short-term leases suit both families and students. Brick firewalls between apartments are not only a safety feature, but provide a sound barrier as well. The Ledges is conveniently located near both I-40 and Business I-40 and is directly on the bus route.

A newsletter keeps residents informed and future complex activities are being planned to help residents get to know each other. With all this, it's easy to see that The Welcome Mat is Out at The Ledges!
