

International Double Dutch Classic Held

Baby 1-2-3, who competes in the 8th-grade doubles at Carl Russell Recreation Center, broke their own record of 337 to 344 at the International Double Dutch Classic held recently in the C.E. Gaines Complex at Winston-Salem State University.

JADE of Martinsville, Va. finished second.

In the 4th-grade singles, Baby Jumping 1-2-3 of Carl Russell Recreation Center finished in first place; second place was taken by TEAM of Durham.

Competing in the 5th-grade singles, Crazy for You of Fayetteville took first place. Second place went to Legends of Success, a team visiting from Germany.

The Koala Kickers of Durham finished first in the 6th-grade singles, and 3xS 2 HYPE, another team from Germany, took second.

In the 7th-grade singles, the Royal Jumpers of Martin Luther King Jr. Recreation Center took first place, and Jumping 1-2-3 finished second.

In the high school division, Junior 1-2-3 of Carl Russell Recreation Center finished first.

Competing in the 5th-grade doubles, Moment of Truth of Fayetteville finished in first place.

Koala Kickers took first place in the 6th-grade doubles. In the 7th-grade doubles, the Royal Jumpers finished in first place.

"Everyone did an excellent job in the competition," said Mattie Peebles, director of the double dutch competition. "This was our second year, and I hope next year we have more states and countries competing with us in double dutch competition."

Nine youths from the surrounding area will travel to Germany on July 23 for two weeks to introduce double dutch jump roping to the German community.

The athletes will work with over 5,000 youth and teach them the techniques of the skill.

They will also travel to Switzerland, Belgium, England and France.

Money is needed to help with outfits, meals and other costs of the trip. To make a contribution, make checks payable to the N.C. State Double Dutch League, 3415 Carver Road, Winston-Salem, N.C. 27105.

Twin City Reds Have a Victorious Year

The Twin City Reds had a victorious win over the Royals, 14-4, to win the championship game on June 26 at Rupert Bell Park.

Coach James E. McIlwain and Assistant Coach Walt Larry brought the team through a winning season. During the first half of the season, the Reds were 9-0.

During the second half of the season, the Reds had a record of 7-2. The Reds lost only two games this season.

"I had a great team to work with," said McIlwain. "All my boys worked hard in school, and are academically capable. I also had great parental support, which made all the difference in the world."

Football, Cheerleader Sign-ups to be Held

The 1993 Walkertown Wolfpack football and cheerleader sign-ups will be held July 17, 24 and 31, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

The sign-ups will be held at Centura Bank in Walkertown, next to Hardee's. Ages range from 5 to 15 years old. Physicals are $10. To join the flag team, the fee is $35.

Each child will need his fourth-quarter report card and a copy of his birth certificate.
