

The National Black Golf Hall of Fame recently held a Junior Golf Exposure, teaching area youths golf skills. The founder and director is Harold Dunovant, a PGA golfer.

National Black Golf Hall of Fame Sponsors Junior Golf Exposure

The National Black Golf Hall of Fame recently sponsored a Junior Golf Exposure, Teaching and Development, and Grassroots Program. The founder and director of the program is PGA Class A Golf Member Harold Dunovant.

The purpose of the program is to bring quality golf instruction and exposure to the black and underprivileged junior citizens who live in Forsyth County.

It is a known fact that some of these people have not been exposed to the game of golf. It is their goal to teach the black youth and juniors the game.

This junior golf program focus on quality. It has one of the countries most experienced black golf pros as its director. He has chosen four experienced black pros for his staff. Harold Dunovant turned pro in 1954 and was one of the first black golfers to attend a PGA business school in Long Beach, Calif. Dunovant is the head pro at Minorcas G.C in Winston-Salem and has been a head pro in Flushing, Long Island,

N.Y., New Orleans, La., Dayton, Ohio, East Orange, N.J. and Raleigh. He is also the founder of the National Black Golf Hall of Fame in Winston-Salem.

Sims Center and Boys Club Join Forces

The William C. Sims Recreation Center and the Happy Hill Gardens Boy's Club have collaborated and formed a Sims and Boy's Club 6- to 10-year-old Basketball League, which plays on Fridays from 2:30-5 p.m. at the William Sims Recreation Center, 1201 Alder St.

With the leadership of Ben Piggott, Ron Bethube and Clarence Brown, 40 kids will have the opportunity to play basketball against other communities in Winston-Salem.

"This program is designed to get rid of the community turf wars that sometimes separate our children from getting together in brotherly love," Piggott said.

Last Friday the Knicks defeated the Blazers, 23-12, and the Bulls defeated the Lakers, 12-6, at the Sims Center.

"This event shows agencies working together to help bring peace among our youth in the communities," Piggott said.

In other sports action, the Sims and Boys Club T-Ball League had two exciting games on July 27.

The Mets beat the Cubs by a score of 6-5, and the Twins defeated the Braves, 7-4.

There will be a back-to-school outdoor picnic and pool party to honor the program participants at the Sims Center on Aug. 13, from 6-8 p.m.

Trophies will be awarded to the winning teams in the Sims and Boys Club T-ball League, Sims and Boys Club 6- to 10-year-old Basketball League, the Sims Center Spelling Bee champion, and the Sims Center Students of the Month for July and August.
