

Family Shares Kindred Spirit during Reunion

The descendants and friends of Bethania Hauser Williams Russell held their three-day family reunion July 23-25.

Reunion events were held at the Winston Lake Golf Course, Tanglewood Park, Yadkinville Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, in the West Yadkin VFW Building in Hamptonville.

Jay Farabee won the C.B. Hauser Scholarship Golf Tournament, which kicked off the opening activities. Howard Duke came in first in the first flight, and Millard Hauser was first in the second flight. Farabee was closest to the 4th pin, and Girlie McNeal was closest to the 16th pin.

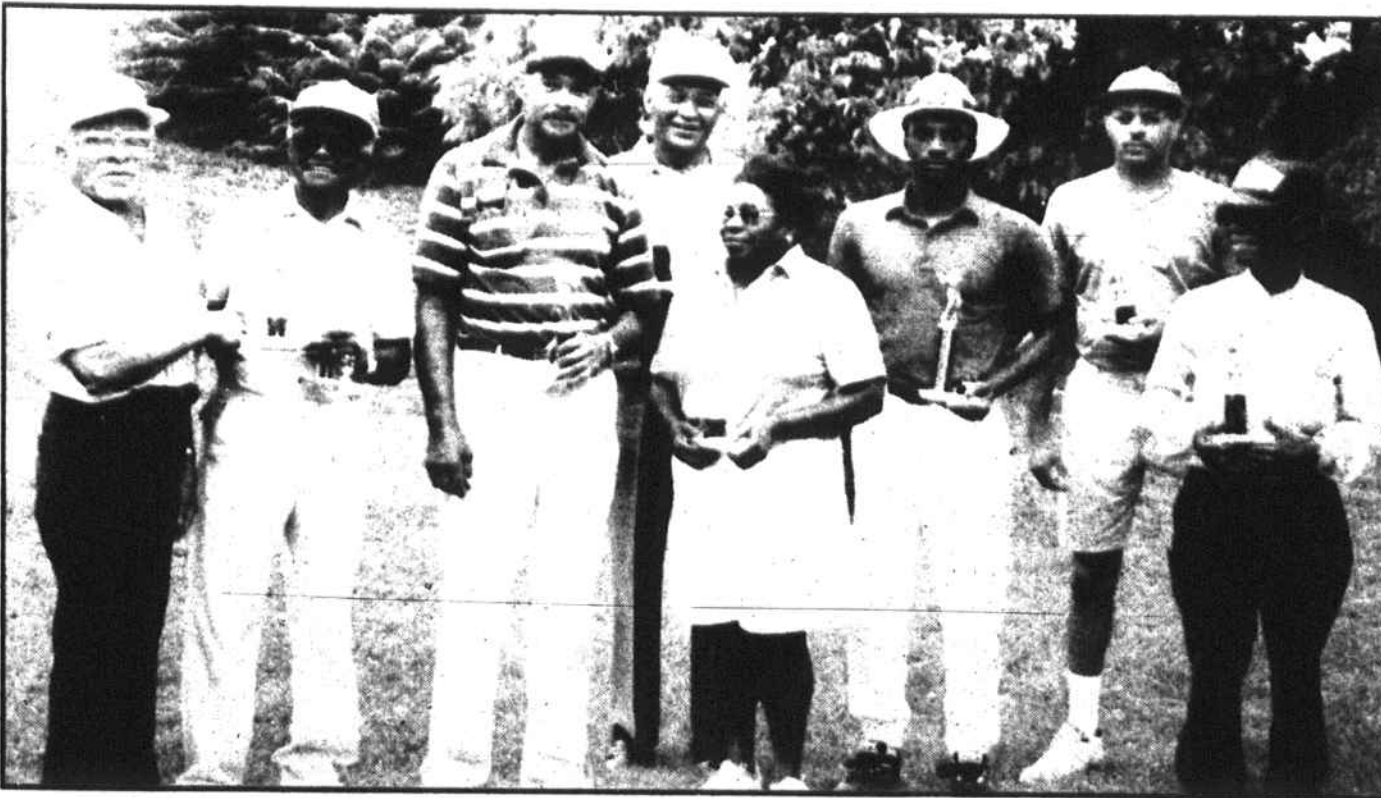

During the picnic at Tanglewood, activities included athletic events, a business meeting and food. Jannis Floyd was elected family president. The 1994 reunion will be held next year on July 22-24 in Cleveland, Ohio. Raphael Hauser, the retiring family president, presided over the business meeting.

Following Sunday's worship, where Michael Bell was the speaker, the reunion ended with the Dixie Russell Moore Fellowship Luncheon, with Mertine Moore Brockenberry presiding. Activities included a memorial service, recognitions, food and fellowship.

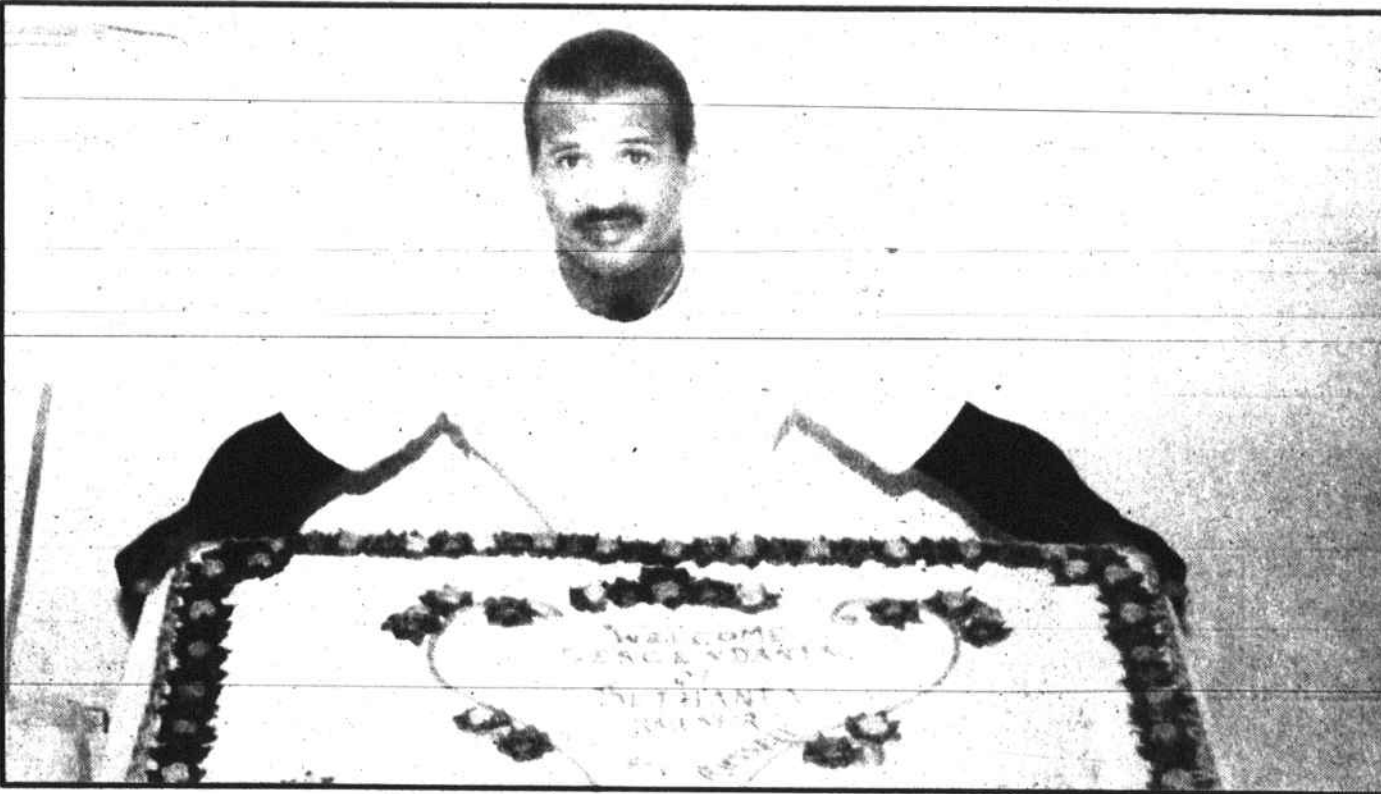

The oldest descendant in attendance was Harold Hauser of Yadkinville. The youngest descendant was Louis Bell of Fayetteville.

Yeulondia Jackson of Sunny Valley, Calif. was the descendant traveling the farthest to attend the reunion. Shirlene and Cassius Michelle of Manheim, Germany, friends of the family, traveled the farthest to attend the reunion.

The D. M. Hauser family had the largest number of siblings present. Members included: Fannie
