

Mineral Springs School Begins Tutorial Program

Students, their parents and faculty at Mineral Springs Elementary School participated in an orientation to kick off a tutorial program on Sept. 29.

Chloris P. Shore, the school's assistant principal, delivered greetings. Vicki Felty, a teacher, summarized the program.

The seven-month program will serve nearly 34 students in kindergarten through fifth grade who live in the Oak Creek neighborhood within the school's community. The program will operate in an Oak Creek apartment donated by Walker Realty. The school's faculty, social worker and liaison officer will serve as adult role models and assist in homework, reading and sharing quality time.

Lowe's Foods of Stanleyville and Paragon Foods will provide daily snacks.

The school hopes to achieve the following goals through the program: improve attendance; improve reading vocabulary for minority and high-risk students; improve math concepts for minority and high risk students; and improve the home-school relationship.

The following students attended:

Cara Jones, Carla Roberts, David Glover, Melonie Glover, Carlotta Roberts, Veronica Ruth, Aljerone Simms, Latisha Evans, Aquanette Sims, Patrice Lindsay, Bernard Ruth, Brodrick Ruth, Roderick Ruth, Antonia Jones, Demesha Webster, Qumillar Lindsay, Adrian Simms, Assante Simms and Ronnie Evans.

The following parents attended:

Charlene Jones, Rosalind Roberts, Berna Ruth and Brenda Evans.

The following teachers attended: Lydia Johnson, Deloris McConnell, Lillian Ingram, Diane Overcash, Carolyn Sear and Faye Ray.

Guests included Dorothy Evans, Pamela Lindsey, Latasha Potter and Greg Fetty.

Gaye Weatherman if principal of the school.

Rev. Wallace Gaither, Elder, True Temple Holiness Church and wife.

Week of Dedication Services to Be Held

The True Temple Holiness Church of God will be celebrating its Dedication Week Oct. 18-24 at 627 Alexander St.

The True Temple Holiness Church was founded by Elder Wallace Gaither Jr.

God gave him a vision to start his own church in July 1976. Gaither along with his wife and family devoted 10 years to the church, before moving to its current location at 1232 Mint St.

The public is invited to help dedicate the sanctuary back to God.

The speakers for the week of dedication will be:

Monday - 7:30 p.m. Rev. Tony Hines; New Institution Baptist Church

Tuesday - 7:30 p.m. Elder Preston Mack; Can you hear the Cry Ministry

Wednesday - 7:30 p.m. Rev. Charles Leak; Solid Rock Baptist Church

Thursday - 7:30 p.m. Bishop L.S. Tate; New Faith Chapel

Friday - 7:30 p.m. Elder Hilton Stone; Grace Assembly Holiness Church

Saturday 7 p.m. Appreciation

Moving Star Singers to Perform At SECCA

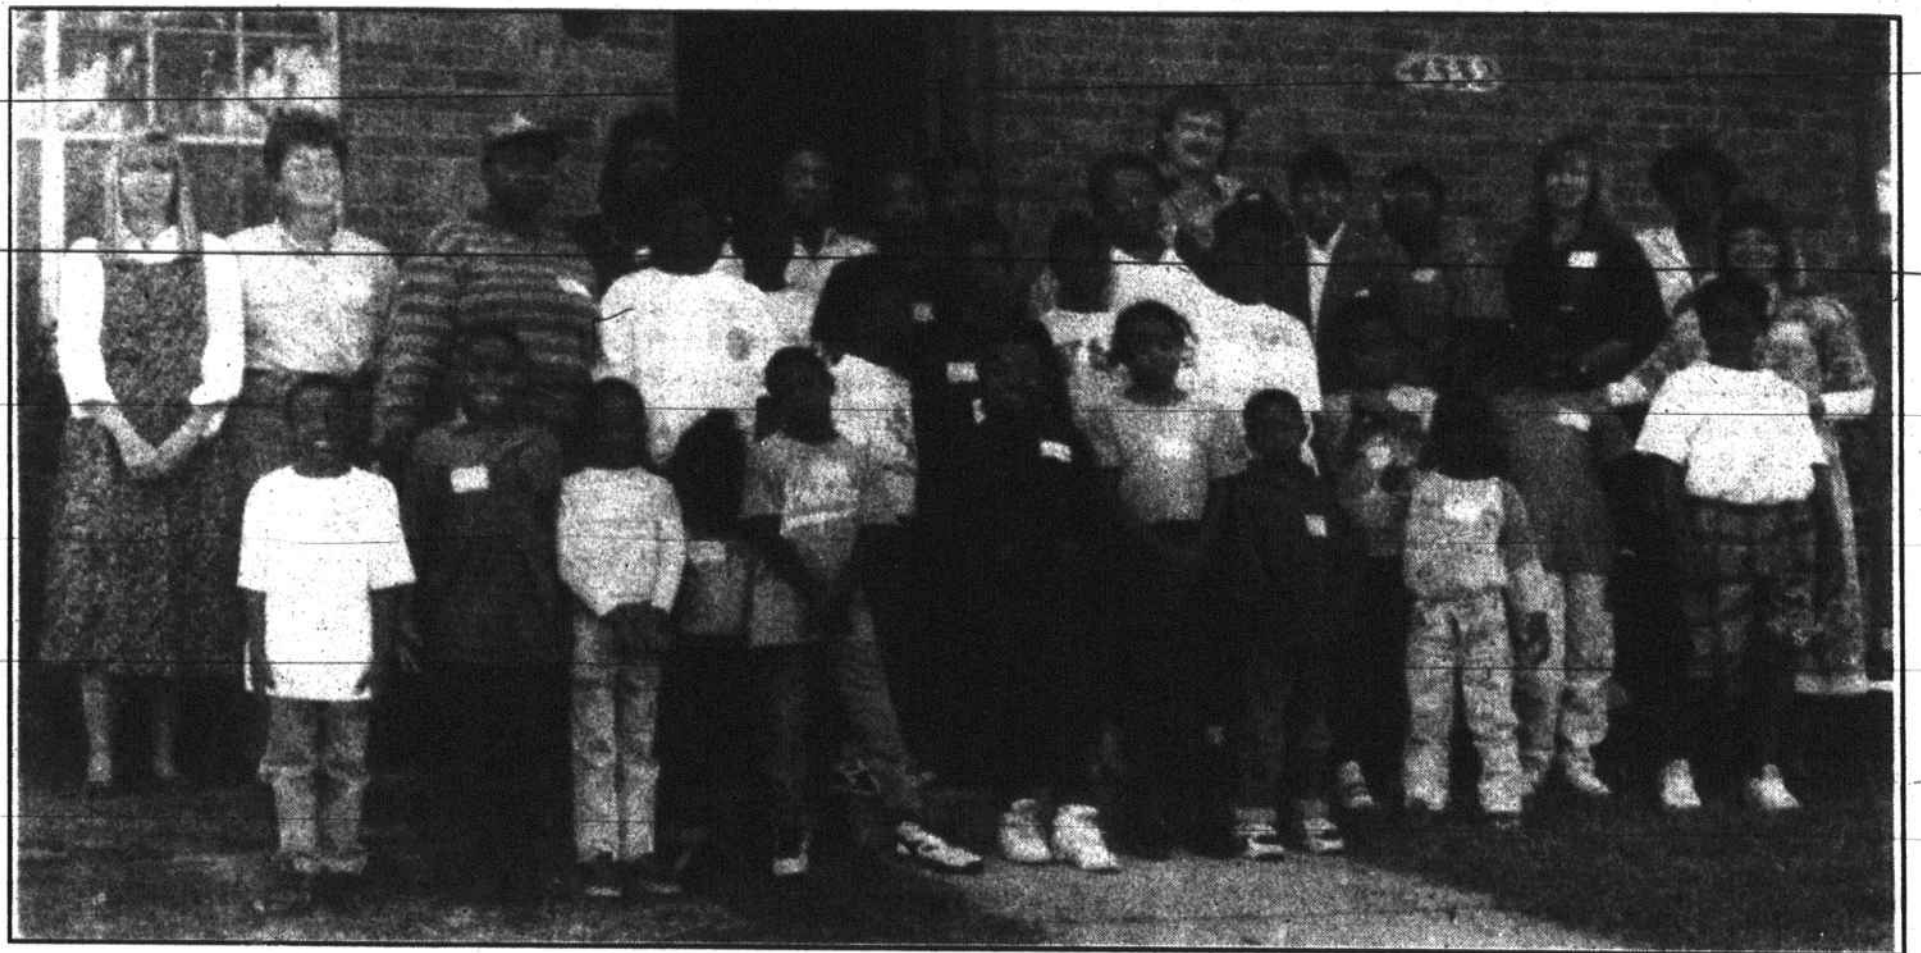

SECCA will inaugurate its Southern sightings & beyond series with the Moving Star Singers on Nov. 5.

The singing and shouting of the Moving Star Singers bear witness to a crucial link in the evolution of one of the world's great choral traditions, that of Black American congregational-style singing.

The Moving Star Singers a family group spanning two generations. Together they possess a rich treasury of knowledge, wisdom, and South Carolina sea island folk expression. The central core of their performance is a range of exciting spirituals and shouts interwoven with moving stories of life on Johns Island.

The performance will take place in SECCA's McChesney Scott Dunn Auditorium and begin at 7:30 p.m. Main galleries featuring the exhibitions. Personal Narratives: Women Photographers of Color and Accounts Southeast: David Helm, will be open for viewing at 6:45 prior to the performance.

Tickets are $5 for SECCA members, students, senior adults and $7 for the general public.

Mineral Springs Elementary School students, their parents and teachers will participate in a seven-month tutorial program.
