HU's Wilson Voted Coach of the Year

Steve Wilson, coach of the high-flying Howard football attack, was named the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference coach of the year in a unanimous vote by his fellow coaches. Wilson guided the Bison to a perfect 11-0 record, the first in the 23-year history of the MEAC, while his 6-0 conference record was the best by an MEAC team since Florida A&M's unblemished mark in 1990.

Howard, winning its first MEAC championship, also received a bid into the NCAA Division I-AA championships while leading the conference in total offense, passing and scoring. The Bison lost 28-14 to defending national champion Marshall Saturday.

Wilson accumulated all seven first place votes and 700 total points in the poll. William Collick of Delaware State was a distant second with 42 points, followed by S.C. State's Willie Jeffries with 31.

A native of Durham, Wilson was named head coach in 1989, when he shortly became the MEAC coach of the year during his inaugural season. Wilson returned to his alma mater after a successful 10-year stint with the Dallas Cowboys and Denver Broncos in the National Football League.

Walker, Montford Players of the Year

Howard quarterback Jay Walker and S.C. State linebacker Joe Montford were voted as the 1993 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference offensive and defensive players of the year by the league's coaches and sports information directors.

Walker, a 6-4 senior from Los Angeles, led the Bison to a perfect 11-0 regular season record and the MEAC championship at 6-0. A member of last year's first team, Walker set conference records in completions (233), passing (3,324), total yards (3,469), while tying the mark for touchdown passes (24) in a season. Walker completed 55 percent of his passes while throwing 13 interceptions.

Montford, 6-2, 220-pound senior from Beaufort, S.C., recorded 115 tackles, 63 of those unassisted, and two sacks to help the Bulldogs lead the MEAC in rushing defense. Montford also returned an interception and a fumble for touchdowns.

Walker was the only unanimous pick for the offensive squad, finishing on all 12 ballots. Following Walker was Howard wide receiver Gary Harrell, who led the conference in receiving with 72 catches for 982 yards and eight touchdowns. Harrell set the single-season record for receptions while becoming the MEAC's career leader with 182 catches.
