

Prince Hall Masons and Eastern Stars give baskets.

Masons Give Thanksgiving Baskets To Families in Need

For the sixth consecutive year the Prince Hall Masons — Olympic Lodge 795 and their sister chapter The Eastern Stars — Queen of Olympic Lodge 620 gave Thanksgiving baskets to 30 families in the community.

This joint project has been very successful due to the cooperation of the Olympic Lodge Worshipful Master John W. Hawkins and the Eastern Star Worthy Matron Delavion Campbell and their members.

Willie A. McMoore, the generous owner of Three Girls Convenience Store, very willingly provided food for this worthy project.

COH To Hold Press Conference

On Dec. 7 from 2 p.m. until 3 p.m. the Davidson County Community Socio Economical Center of Hope (COH) will hold a press conference at The Marquee Hotel, Level A Ballroom, to announce COH receiving the JOLI (Job Opportunities for Low Income Individuals) Grant. The United States Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) awards ten JOLI grants per year, and for 1993, COH is the only North Carolina recipient of this prestigious grant. The Grant award from HHS for JOLI is $550,000; however, with private and public partnerships with organization in Winston-Salem, Statesville, and Durham an additional $625,000 was committed.

To ensure the success of the program. The Center of Hope has developed partnership with the following organizations:

- KPCH, Inc., a Winston-Salem Resident Management Organization
- Housing Authority of Winston-Salem
- Center of Community Self-Help of Durham
- SHARC, Inc., a Statesville Resident Management Organization
- Mitchell Community College
- Department of Social Service in Winston-Salem & Statesville
- Winston-Salem State University

In order to commemorate this wonderful opportunity for the individuals in North Carolina and to kick off the implementation of this program, federal, state and local officials will be attendance at the press conference. Gov. Jim Hunt, Representative Melvin L. Watt, Mayor Martha Wood of Winston-Salem, Mayor Vernon G. Price from Lexington, and Mayor Ralph Bently from Statesville have been invited to attend this press conference. Representative Watt has confirmed he will officiate the press conference. Immediately following the press conference, The Marquee of Winston-Salem will provide a reception for all individual attending this ceremony.
