

Crossing 52 Initiative to Host Holiday Festival

People for Racial Reconciliation has planned "An Intercultural Holiday Festival" as part of the Crossing 52 Initiative. The festival will highlight different holiday or cultural events of various religious and ethnic groups, including Christmas, Kwanza and Hanukkah. The festival will be held from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Dec. 2, at the Anderson Center at Winston-Salem State University, 610 Martin Luther King Jr. Drive.

The goal of the festival is to foster better racial relations by exposing members of the public to various cultures within our community. There will be continuing entertainment and educational segments, including music, dance, skits, and story-telling provided throughout the evening, featuring the North Carolina Black Repertory Company. Sandwiches, drinks and other concessions will be available. In addition, there will be exhibits, crafts, art and baked goods for sale, as well as games and activities for youth. The proceeds of all sales will go to one or more groups which are fighting racism in Winston-Salem.

This festival will be the first event sponsored in the Crossing 52

Initiative. The first three forums on racial relations were held last summer. Another forum on race relations and public education is planned for January '94.

This event is being sponsored by the community and dialogue Task Force of the Crossing 52 Initiative. All members of the community are invited to attend. Admission to the festival is free.

West 24th Street Club Celebrates Thanksgiving

The West 24th Street Community Club held its monthly meeting Tuesday, Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. at the home of Robert Jordan.

The meeting was open by singing "Come Ye Thankful People Come."

Prayers Brother James Watson, in keeping with the Thanksgiving season each club member gave expression why they were thankful. The president read a poem We all should be thankful willing to share.

in others because we really care. God will bless us each and every day as we travel along life's highway. Our Thanksgiving donation was given to two of our sick members. At the close of the meeting the group sang "Amazing Grace."

Sigmas Thanksgiving

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity continues to carry out its motto, "Culture for Service and Service for Humanity."

Since its founding in 1914 on the campus of Howard University, its main reason for being is to serve its community.

On Thanksgiving Day, Delta Sigma Chapter continued this tradition with another act of service to our immediate community by giving a complete turkey dinner to deserving mother and four children. When you are not in need, it's difficult to realize how important a gesture of this kind is. The expressions of gratitude and appreciation by the recipient made the effort worthwhile.

The chapter officers are: Willie Booker, president; Benjamin Piggot, vice-president; Travis McGriff, recording secretary; Rupert Bell, Jr., financial secretary; R.E. Brower, corresponding secretary; John H. Alexander, treasurer.

Citizen Bonds. Citizen Bonds.

Support Your Home Team. Invest in City of Winston-Salem Citizen Bonds.

Let the earning power of Citizen Bonds pay for your long-term financial goals, like college and retirement. Your investment can double in 14 years or triple in 20 years. And, since the interest you earn is exempt from Federal income tax and North Carolina State income and intangibles taxes, Citizen Bonds are even more valuable.

Bonds with maturities from three through nine years are priced at $1,000 and pay interest semi-annually. The prices of 10- to 20-year bonds are steeply discounted so that they return $1,000 at maturity. You can invest up to $25,000, and the longer the maturity you choose, the greater the rate of interest you earn.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to improve streets, bridges, walkways, street lighting, recreational facilities and public safety equipment in Winston-Salem. So, while you're helping reach your goals for tomorrow, you're making the City of Winston-Salem a better place to live today.
