

COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Community Outreach to Sponsor Vigil

The Community Outreach is sponsoring a "We Care" vigil in Piedmont Park, Dec. 3 from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. This vigil will be located outside of the community center in the parking lot on 29th Street.

The purpose of this blessed event is to let all community area residents and our city know that we care.

There will be singing, praying, preaching, testimonies, praise reports and community walks.

Refreshments will be served inside the community center all night. There will be a pancake breakfast served at 6 a.m.

We invite churches, choirs and congregations to be a part of this we care vigil.

For more information call 773-1764.

▲ Gift Baskets Given

The Anderson High School Class of '67 had a meeting on Nov. 23 at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. & Mrs. John Young and Family.

The class of '67 meeting gave an annual Thanksgiving basket to a needy family.

Theodis Foster, chairperson; Warren Livingston, vice chairperson; Linda Scott-Cole, secretary; Jackie Richardson, activity chairperson; Birdie Jackson, treasurer and Barbara Hughes, assistant secretary.

▲ Youth Explosion

The Youth Challenge, Inc. will be presenting 1993 Year end Saturday Nite Live Youth Explosion to be held Dec. 11, 7 p.m. at Benton Convention Center. With music, drama, fun youth testimonials, a word on purpose, potential and destiny for the next generation. An event dedicated to Stopping The Violence, The Guns and The Destruction In Our Community To Save A Generation and Unify For Purpose... Now Is The Time!

Everyone is welcome. For more information call 724-9109.

▲ Seminar Held

The School of Filmmaking of the North Carolina School of the Arts, in association with the Winston-Salem Piedmont Triad Film Commission of the Greater Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, will be presenting a seminar called "Movies in Our Backyard" from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 4, in

Cash Elected President

William B. Cash was elected president and board chairman of the Winston-Salem Housing Foundation, Inc. at the 25th annual meeting of the non-profit development organization.

Other officers and directors elected were: Kenneth B. Compton, vice president; George W. Hayworth, vice president; Joycelyn Johnson, secretary; Mazie Woodruff, assistant secretary; Henry C. Allen, treasurer.

Directors elected were: Aubrey C. Doggett Jr.; Charles G. Reavis Jr.; Dr. Frank Celestino; Norwood Robinson; Harrison Lassiter; Garry L. Merritt; Arthur S. Milligan Jr. and William C. Mann.

Cash announced construction of over $6.8 million in housing for low-income elderly including a new dining hall for Granville Place apartments.

The Housing Foundation was awarded a $75,000 grant in a national competition conducted by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Funds will provide services for elderly residents of Koerner Place in Kernersville. The Housing Foundation has a similar grant to provide services at University Place.

The Housing Foundation has developed 444 apartment units for the elderly and provides consulting and technical services to other developers of affordable housing.

Performance Place on the School campus, 200 Woughtown Street.

The seminar, which is open to the public, will be conducted by a panel of film professionals. It is geared toward those people interested in the art and business of motion picture and television production (including financing and distribution), with emphasis on regional and local production resources and development. It will also explore the realities as well as the benefits of film production to the community.

The registration fee, $15 for students with ID, and $45 for all others, includes lunch and seminar materials. For reservation, call the School of Filmmaking at 770-1330.

▲ Semi Finalists Named

Five additional high school seniors attending the North Carolina School of the Arts have been recognized in two 1994 programs conducted by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Jesse Emery of Charleston, W. Va., and Lori Wike of Fayetteville have been named semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program, while Leah Cox of Spring, Texas, and Elizabeth Lammers of White Bear Lake, Minn., have been named commended students in the Merit Program.

Lela McKnight of Greenville, S.C., has been named a semifinalist in the National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students.

The honors were announced by Dean Bill Tribby and Assistant Dean Peggy Dodson of the School of the Arts' Division of General Studies.

About 1,500 academically talented African-American students were announced as semifinalists in the National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students. They have the opportunity to continue in the competition for some 800 scholarship, also to be awarded next spring.

▲ Police's Toy Drive

The Winston-Salem Police Department Community Foot Patrol Squads will be holding their second annual Toy Drive. Anyone wishing to donate new and/or usable toys should contact Sgt. S.A. Hairston at 773-7853. The toys will be delivered to needy families throughout the Winston-Salem area.

Any family that has a need for the toys should also contact Sgt. Hairston.

▲ Annual Tea

American Legion American Legion Post #220 auxiliary 2332 North Liberty will sponsor their annual membership Seasonal Tea Sun. Dec. 5, at 5 p.m. Regular business meeting will be held at 3 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

For more information call 724-7689.

▲ Bridge Classes

Registration for Bridge classes (Beginners, Intermediate and Advanced) was held at the Dudley Cosmetology Facility on Wednesday, Dec. 1 at 2 p.m.

Persons interested in registering may still do so by contacting Ruth G. Washington. The classes will be taught by Richard H. Bowling, one of the top players in the country. Bowling is also president of the Triad Bridge Unit. All bridge players are invited to learn more through class lessons. Call 767-4087.

HBCU REPORT

The Winston-Salem State University Choir will present its annual Christmas concert at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 5. The performance will be held in Dillard Auditorium at the Anderson Center, located at Reynolds Park Road and Martin Luther King Jr. Drive.

In addition to the choir, the Winston-Salem Community Handbell Ringers, a group of nearly 50 people, will perform.

D'willa Simmons Burke is the choir director.

The concert is free and open to the public.

For more information, call 750-2525.

The Wind Ensemble at Winston-Salem State University will give a free concert, "A Christmas Fantasy," featuring works by American and international composers, at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 5, in the Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium.

The program includes the overture of G.F. Handel's "Messiah," Leroy Anderson's "Sleigh Ride," Gustav Holst's "Christmas Day," Alfred Reed's "Russian Christmas Music," and Jester Hairston's "Calypso Christmas for Band."

Lee David Legette is the director.

For more information, call 750-2530.

The Office of Continuing Education at Winston-Salem State University is offering a four-week GMAT preparatory course from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays. The course meets Dec. 4, 11 and 18 and on Jan. 8.

The fee is $140. For more information call 750-2630.

"Kmart's got shoes with a fashion kick"

17⁹⁹

WOMEN'S LEATHER BOOTS help you step out in style. Choose pull-on styles or western styles detailed with fringe or fancy ornaments. These great-looking boots are great with all your casual wear - especially your favorite jeans. Reg. 29.99-32.99 Ea. Suede boot with back tie available in wide-width sizes only.

Sale Prices Effective Wednesday, December 1 Through Saturday, December 4

The quality you need, the low price you want.

Regular Prices May Vary In Some Stores Due To Local Competition Layaway Not Available In All Stores ©1993 Kmart Corporation

WOMEN'S LEATHER BOOTS Choose black suede lickers by Northwest Territory, or grunge-style boots in black or tan with an updated lug sole. Reg. 19.99-22.99 Ea.

ADDRESS PANEL