Va. Union and Elizabeth City State Winners in Weekend Tournaments

CIAA teams competed in a variety of tournaments and classics throughout the country this week.

Virginia Union University (1-0, 3-0), in the VUU Tip-off Tournament, defeated Millersville University for the championship. The VUU defense held all Millersville players under 10 points and six rebounds. The Panthers' Reggie Jones led all scorers, connecting on 7-of-11 shots for 21 points. Warren Peebles, the Tournament MVP, hit 7-of-11 field goals and 3-of-4 3-pointers for 20 points. Kenny Scroggins added 11 points.

Elizabeth City State University (2-1), won the ECSU Invitational Men's Tournament championship, defeating Benedict College, 88-87. Five players for the Vikings scored in double figures. Jo-Ve Ford had 13 points and 13 rebounds, while Maurice Bennett poured in 19 points and had 12 rebounds and seven blocks. Nate Higgs added 17 points, 8 rebounds and five assists; Shawn Walker had 16 points, shooting 3-of-4 from 3-point range; and Martin Lacewell chipped in 13 points and added four steals. St. Pauls College (1-1, 2-4), in the ECSU Tournament, lost to Allen University, 84-81. In the losing cause, Melvin Jones had 32 points

(13-of-23 from the field), and Tim King had 11 points.

Hampton University (2-0, 5-1) and Norfolk State University (0-1, 4-1), traveled to Atlanta to compete in the 13th Annual Ricky Williams Classic, pitting the CIAA against the SIAC. In the first night of competition, Dec. 3, NSU defeated Morris Brown College (MBC), 93-86. For the Spartans, Charles Newborn (14 pts., 23 rebs., 3 blks.) and Corey Williams (26 pts., 6 rebs., 4 assts.) set the pace. Derrick Bryant added 15 points and 10 rebounds, and Carnell Penn had 13 points in the championship game. Hampton fell to Clark Atlanta University, 100-76, Dec. 4. Keith Spence led all Pirate scorers with 18 points, and Kevin Gregory added 15. On the second night of play, the Pirates defeated MBC, 76-73. Playing just 11 minutes, Hampton forward Derritt Boyd connected on 9-of-14 field goals, scoring 20 points, and pulled in 11 rebounds. David Saunders added 18 points and 11 rebounds, and Gregory chipped in 10 points.
