

Cyrene Crusaders and Knights Templar Host First Awards Banquet

Elizabeth Court #7 Order of Cyrene Crusaders, Knights Templar Excellent Commandry #7 of Winston-Salem and Knights Templar Prelate #10 of Walkertown hosted the First Awards Banquet in the honor of the recently chartered Cyrene Court in Winston-Salem.

More than one hundred members, family members and friends enjoyed a seven course meal at the Masonic Hall on 14th Street. The hall was adorned with elaborate Christmas Decorations.

Royal Princess Commdress Pat Rhodes-Landingham and chief engineer Weldon Day hosted the event. Special guest were Cyrene District Deputy Emma McDougal of High Point, chief engineer George Garlington of High Point, Order-of-the-Eastern-Star-Grand District Deputy Ricky Wilson, members of Cyrene Court of High Point, Bernice D. Murrell of Forsyth Funeral Home, Princess Ann Johnson of the Traveling Wonder Girls, worthy matron elect Bessie Henderson of Meridian Chapter #308. Also guest Loyal Lady Ruler Willie Mae Saunders of the Order of the Golden Circle and the Rev. Paul Lowe of Shiloh Baptist Church who gave the prayer for peace.

Princess Jessie Burton was chairperson for the event and coordinated the affair along with her committee members; Princess Magalene Cuthrell, Princess Catherine Fryer, Princess Gwedolyn Goins, Princess Lillie Gwyn, Princess Beverly Hosch, Princess Bernice Miller, Princess Elanie Morris, Princess Shirley Scott, Princess Willa Shelton, Princess Ruth Thomas, and Princess Joyce Williams. Other members present were Princess Bernice Bess, Princess Mary Caldwell, Princess Josephine Cooper, Princess Sharon Grooms, Princess Patricia Herring, Princess Catherine Kirkland, Princess Julia McCollom and deputy advisor Samuel J. Tatum.

Special recognition was given to Princess Gwedolyn Goins and Princess Lillie Gwyn for their work on the committee by chairperson Princess Jessie Burton who was awarded a plaque for her dedicated service. Princess Beverly Hosch was awarded a plaque for committed service to the court. Princess Bernice "Bonnie" Miller was awarded the Princess of the Year Award.

Deputy advisor Samuel J. Tatum was awarded the Engineer of the Year Award. Each committee member was awarded a certificate of appreciation. Chief Engineer Weldon Day received the certificate of appreciation to the Knights Templar. Deputy advisor Samuel J. Tatum closed the evening with a prayer for love and joy.

All children present received a

L-R: Andrew Bradsher, Megan Evans, Ryan Evans, Erica Freeman, Alexandra Freeman, Kandice Davis, Brianna Bradsher, Thomas Greene, Sheree Oliver and Tavyn Richardson; Back L-R Janski Brasher, Burnetta Evans, resident manager, Charles Linsay, Majorie Little, Eli Beaty, Dameka Stowe, Teneille Richardson, Tori Richardson, Barbara Oliver, George Acey, Larnetra Richardson, W-S Chapter President.

Jack & Jill Fellowship With Sunrise Towers

The Winston-Salem Chapter of Jack and Jill, Inc. hosted a holiday fellowship with the residents of Sunrise towers on Sunday, Dec. 5 from 5 to 7 p.m. Christmas ornaments which were made by the residents and the children of Jack and Jill were placed on the Christmas tree that everyone took part in decorating. As refreshments were served, everyone joined in Christmas caroling. The children of Jack and Jill presented each resident with a Christmas gift. Jack and Jill is a National Organization of African-American families which focuses on the educational, social and cultural growth of children. The president of the Winston-Salem Chapter is Larnetra Richardson.

Service Award Presented

The Piedmont Triad N.C. Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association has presented its 1993 Gladys Cain Pulliam Award for service to Alzheimer patients and their families to Judith R. Owen. This award was presented to Owen in recognition of the outstanding contributions she has made both as Director of the Adult Day Care and Alzheimer's Center in Winston-Salem and as an Alzheimer's family support group leader.

The award was presented at the Chapter's Annual Meeting held Nov. 30. The Chapter also presented its first Mary Frances and Ambrose Cram Leadership Award to Diane Balcom, Past President of the Alzheimer's Consortium of North Carolina, and the Stand By Me Award to Sammie Hodges with Senior Services of Davidson County. Partners in Caring Awards were presented to nineteen individuals and organizations in recognition of their many generous contributions to the Chapter over the past year.

The Annual Meeting also gave the Chapter an opportunity to install new officers and Board members. Officers for the coming year include Homer E. Fairchild of Davie County as President, Cheryl Callahan of Guilford County as Vice-President, Allyn Bell of Davie County as Treasurer and Charlene Johnson of Forsyth County as Associated Treasurer. New Board members are Yolanda Ladcraft, Kay Bryan Edwards, Terry Moore-Painter, Mike Aiken and Rachel Hull of Guilford County as Associated Treasurer. New Board members are Yolanda Ladcraft, Kay Bryan Edwards, Terry Moore-Painter, Mike Aiken and Rachel Hull of Guilford County, Sally Afafe and Gwen Gambill of Forsyth County and Allyn Bell of Davie County.

30% TO 50% OFF*

ENTIRE STOCK OF MEN'S, WOMEN'S AND BOYS' ATHLETIC SHOES

SPALDING • MACGREGOR • RAWLINGS • CHIC GITANO • THE BODY COMPANY™ • EVERLAST

Choose from these great styles and others. Many available in leather. When it comes to offering quality, value and fashion, Kmart doesn't miss a step!

13.99 Save 30%
WOMEN'S HI-TOPS
Chic shoes are lightweight and comfortable. Reg. 19.99

9.99 Save 30%
WOMEN'S JOGGERS
Made of durable leather and nylon. Reg. 19.99

9.99 Save 30%
MEN'S LEATHER COURT SHOES
in medium or wide-width sizes. Reg. 19.99

19.99 Save 33%
MEN'S LEATHER HI-TOPS
featuring the sock fit system. Reg. 29.99

12.99 Save 30%
MEN'S LEATHER JOGGERS
when comfort and style are what you want. Even the price has the right fit. Reg. 29.99

7700 North Point Blvd., Winston-Salem— 2690 Peters Creek Parkway, Winston-Salem