Sorority to Sponsor Annual Christmas

Phi Omega Chapter, Alpha kappa Alpha Sorority sponsored its ninth annual Christmas party for the 2 years old and toddlers at Bethlehem Center, Wednesday, Dec. 8.

The children listened to "The Night Before Christmas," by Clement Moore, song Christmas songs and talked to Santa's helpers, Shedrick Adams. Pictures were made and refreshments were served.

These sorority members assisted: Basileus Priscilla Green, Deloris Brown, Barbara Brown and Bernice Davenport.

This activity is part of Phi Omega's community outreach program. Furnishing blankets for Crisis Control Center is another arm of the same program.

Winter Term

Winter doesn't have to be cold, gray and dismal! Enroll now for the winter term at the Community Music School (CMS) of the North Carolina School of the Arts, and recharge your creative batteries!

The winter term will begin Monday, Jan. 3, at the Community Music School, which is located in the Stevens Center in downtown Winston-Salem. The 10-week term will end March 14.

The school offers traditional private instruction with a professional faculty for students of all ages. Cost depends on the length of lessons: Ten 30-minute lessons will cost $120; ten 45-minute lessons, $180; and ten 60-minute lessons, $240.

To sign up of the Suzuki String Program, call 770-1305. To sign up for any of the other Community Music School offerings, call 721-1222.

Christmas Cheer

Oloff Grier takes on his second year of spreading Christmas Cheer.

His plan is to share with neighborhood residents on Dec. 23 starting at 3 p.m. at his home located at 1702 New Walkertown Road. The area will cover resident's homes from Martin Luther King, Jr. Drive to Cameron Avenue and 5th Street to New Walkertown Road. Cheer bags will include apples, oranges, candy, raisins and stuffed animals.

Grier is a member of Hanes Memorial C.M.E. Church where he serves on the Senior Usher Board and the Senior Steward Board.

Award Received

North Carolina School of the Arts alumnus Paul G. Tazewell has received a 1993 Princess Grace Foundation-USA Award in recognition of his achievements in theatre.

Tazewell is an associate artist costume designer with Arena Stage, a classical theatre company based in Washington, D.C. Over the past five years, he has designed costumes for shows that have been staged at theatres including Lincoln Center's Mitzi Newhouse Theater, the Cleveland Play House, Hartford Sage and The Pittsburgh Public Theatre, as well as the Arena Stage.

The Princess Grace Foundation-USA was established in 1982 to recognize and assist the career development of young artists who strive for the highest standards of excellence in American theatre, dance and film. The foundation was the inspiration of the Princess, who had hoped to establish an organization in American modeled after the one she began in Monaco in 1964.

Violinist to Perform at W-S Symphony

Violinist Sarah Johnson will be the quest soloist when the Winston-Salem Piedmont Triad Symphony performs the world premiere of Robert Ward's Violin Concerto in January. Maestro Peter Perret will also conduct the orchestra in Beethoven's Symphony No. 3 and Schubert's Overture to Rosamunde.

Performances will be at 3 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 9 and 8 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 11 at the Stevens Center in downtown Winston-Salem.

A member of the music faculty of the North Carolina School of the Arts, Sarah Johnson made her debut at the age of ten with the Minneapolis Symphony. Before moving to this state, she performed with the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra and was founder and director of a chamber music series in Charleston, S.C. called Sarah Johnson & Friends at the Dock Street Theatre. She made her European debut at the Spoleto Italy Festival in 1984. Johnson is a proponent of work by women composers and a frequent performer of new works.

Robert Ward, a Pulitzer Prize-winning composer and former chancellor of the N.C. School of the Arts, grew on blues, jazz and swing music in writing his first concerto for violin.

The concert, fourth in the Symphony's 1993-94 Classical Series, is sponsored by Washburn Graphic and WFDD FM.

Tickets, priced from $12 to $18, are available from the Symphony Box Office, 723-7919 and the Stevens Center Box Office. Students may purchase tickets at half-price in the 30 minutes before each performance. Group rates and prorated season tickets are also available.

The Winston-Salem Duplicate Bridge Club had its first Christmas Party/ Game on Tuesday, Dec. 14 at the home of Mr. & Mrs. James Segers. It was a festive event with lots of fellowship, food and a game. The club reelection its present officers to serve another term, as follows: Olivia B. Thompkins (president), Ruby B. Walker (vice president), Sarah J.

Boone (secretary) and Mavis H. Lloyd (treasurer). Rudolph Boone and Bessie Allen were appointed directors. Renita Thompkins-Segers and Goldia Anderson were appointed directors-in-training. Flonnie Anderson was appointed reported for the club.

The club honored its director and past president R.V. Boone, with a gift, especially for the public relations job in keeping bridge

Stephens, James and Margaret Payne, Jefferson and Vivian Rollins, Ruby B. Walker and Juanita Wynecoff. This was the best overall participation of the members in the club's history. We missed the few members who could not be present! The club will have its next meeting/game on Tuesday, Jan. 4 at the Winston Lake Family YMCA.
