

Abundant Life Crusade and the Evangelist Ministry was a Big Success

The Abundant Life Crusade, under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Seth O. Lartey, pastor of Goler Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church and the Evangelism Ministry was held at different sites in this community.

The first crusades began in May at Lakeside Community. The vision was to take the gospel of Jesus Christ into all the world giving each lost soul the opportunity to hear, to see, and to experience the love of Christ at work in us, through us, and by us. This we believe shall be done through seeking to save the lost, discipling the saved and sending the believer into the world to be an ambassador of Christ, a witness of Christ, the light and salt of the earth. The following men of God came together to spread the word of God; the Rev. Sandy Wither- spoon of Spencer Memorial Christian Church; the Rev. Donald Jenkins of St. Paul United Methodist Church; the Rev. C.W. Leake of Solid Rock Baptist Church; the Rev. Carlton Eversley of Dellabrook Presbyterian Church and the Rev. Dr. Seth O. Lartey of Goler Memorial. The next tent was set up in the Cleveland Avenue Homes. The Evangelist Team did extensive outreach in the community prior to the crusade. Partners there, were the Rev. Dairl Scott of Hickory Grove A.M.E. Zion; the Rev. Albert Downing of Mt. Sinai A.M.E. Zion; Advance and Brother Jesse Vaughn, a local preacher at Goler and the Rev. Nancetta Myers of Steward's Chapel A.M.E. Zion in Rural Hall.

The preaching talents of the Rev. Howard Daniels of Living Water Non-Denominational Church, the Rev. Scott of Hickory Grove, Rip Wilkins of the City Wide Outreach, set the pace for a spirit-filled crusade at Happy Hill Gardens.

The last crusade was at Fairchild Community with Holy Ghost preaching, teaching and witnessing.

Ministers serving in this crusade were Bishop and Mrs. L.V.

Stennis of Christian Charismatic Methodist Church; the Rev. Lloyd Johnson of Ephesus Seventh-Day Adventist Church; the Rev. Lartey and local preacher at Goler, Sister Pam D. Phillips, who was the coordinator of the four crusades.

With the help of all the ministers and with the word of God going forth, 30 persons said "yes" to Jesus.

Bible Study is being held at Worship Centers in Lakeside.

Cleveland and Happy Hill Gardens. The local preachers of Goler Memorial operate the centers each Friday evening to continue to inspire and teach our people the word of God. The ministers serving the centers are Conita Archie-Hunt and Louis Hunter Jr. in the Lakeside Community; Pam H. Phillips in the Cleveland Homes Community; Beverly McMillian and Pam D. Phillips in the Happy Hill Gardens Community.

The Abundant Life Crusade was one of many blessings, going many levels higher with God.

The Evangelist Team, the Rev. Dr. Seth O. Lartey and Pam D. Phillips, coordinator, extend their thanks and appreciation to all the ministers who were partners in this great effort.
