Appalachian Summer Fireworks Concert features Gershwin as conducted by William Henry Curry

They let the drums ring out! They let a program of George Gershwin that cap- Watch Over Me," from "Stairway to Parthe cannon roar! They let the people shout! tured every mood and moment from "I've adise" to "Let's Call the Whole Thing And William Henry Curry, associate con- Got Rhythm" to "Fascinating Rhythm," ductor, struck up the band' He led them in from "Embraceable You" to "Someone to

They turned light and easy with "Let's Call the Whole Thing Off" and they all laughed. Under the direction of William Henry Curry, Associate Conductor of the North Carolina Symphony, George Gershwin and his music made what's old seem

And at the appointed hour, Curry directed the band in Tchaikovsky's "1812 Overture" and fireworks exploded in the air over Kidd Brewer Stadium in Boone and lit the sky with a burst of color and blast of sound. An Appalachian Summer sparkled for all.
