

THE CHRONICLE

18th Annual Community Service Awards

Submit your candidates Today!

THE CHRONICLE invites you to help in the selection of this year's recipients for the "Man and Woman of the Year," "Community Service Award" and the "Lifetime Achievement Awards." Recipients will be chosen by THE CHRONICLE staff and advisory team. Judging will be based as follows: "Man and Woman of the Year" will be persons who have demonstrated outstanding character and serve as role models for others. The man or woman of the year should be someone who has triumphed over a personal tragedy or someone who has helped an individual to overcome an obstacle in order to obtain a better standard of living. The occurrences should have taken place during the past year. The recipients of the "Community Service Award" will be judged based on contributions to the African American community. The individual must have demonstrated a commitment through affiliation with community-service agencies, community-oriented projects or community institutions, schools, churches, etc. The recipients of the "Lifetime Achievement Awards" will be a long-time Stewart in the African American community. He or she will be someone who has, over the years, epitomized what "role model" means. Nominees should be Piedmont Triad residents. The winners will be recognized in February 2001 Community Awards Special Edition. The recipients will receive commemorative plaques at the 18th Annual Awards Banquet in March. Please print legibly and be as specific as possible in describing your nominees' accomplishments. Use additional paper if necessary.
