

St. Mark Baptist Church holds watch-night services

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Watch-night services were held at St. Mark Baptist Church on Dec. 31. Services were held from 9:30 p.m. New Year's Eve until the wee hours of the morning on New Year's Day. The speakers for the services were Minister Virginia Ellis, who spoke on the subject "The Lord Did It"; Rev. Namon Williams, who spoke on "If You Unwrap The Gift, Then It Will Work For You"; Minister Mary Williams, who spoke on "Rejected Cornerstone"; Rev. Harold Blackley, who spoke on "Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is My Substitute." Pastor Dr. James Fulwood, our own pastor, summed it up with a prayer for the New Year and sang along with the congregation "Yes Lord" for the beginning of year 2001. Music was furnished by the mass choir. We really had a high time in the name of the Lord. A delicious breakfast was served immediately after the service.

The Twin City Choristers will perform at the Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday Concert at Grace Presbyterian Church on Sunday, Jan. 14, at 3:30 p.m.

Fifth annual MLK Jr. Concert with the Twin City Choristers

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The session and congregation of Grace Presbyterian Church invite the public to the Fifth Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday Concert with the Twin City Choristers. The concert will be on Sunday, Jan. 14, at 3:30 p.m.

A special addition this year is the dedication of the sanctuary's multicultural stained glass windows. Further, music for preparation and inspiration will be performed by the Grace Men's Chorus and the United We Sing Youth Choir.

The Choristers were organized in September 1957 by Dr. Permillia Flack Dunston, an accomplished musician and the first director of the group. Dr. Fred Tanner is the present director.

The purpose of the occasion is to celebrate the life and works of King. The public will not want to miss this opportunity. To be sure, the congregation will be made glad with the Choristers' rich diversity of spirituals and classics that revive "The Dream" and celebrate the journey of struggle and triumph. A reception, sponsored by Grace Presbyterian Men, will follow the concert.

Grace Presbyterian Church is at 3901 Carver School Road. The Rev. Dr. Samuel Stevenson is the pastor.

Mount Zion Kwanzaa Celebration

During Kwanzaa celebration, Mt. Zion Baptist Church recognizes its own Dr. Maya Angelou for receiving the National Medal of Arts Award 2000 from President Clinton. Deaconess Donnie Young presented flowers.

itual excellence' becomes a way of life."

The ministry of the year award was presented to the Public Relations Committee. This award was decided upon strictly by Rev. P.A. Samuels. At the banquet Pastor Samuels remarked that it was a tough decision this year. He said that the Christian Business League and several other ministries within the church all deserved special recognition this year.

Goodwill is heading into the new year by picking up the pace. We are ready and equipped to do 21st century ministry. Goodwill is a full-service ministry and has active ministries that relate to every aspect of a person's spirit, soul and body. Here is a list of just some of the ministries that are currently active at Goodwill: Youth and Young Adult Ministry, Seniors Ministry, a Singles Ministry, Men's and Women's Ministry, Leadership Education and Training Ministry, Drama and Cultural Enlightenment Ministry, just to name a few.

We extend an open invitation to fellowship with us at any of the following weekly services: Sunday morning worship, 11 o'clock; Wednesday morning and evening Bible study, at 9:45 a.m. and 7 pm. Sunday school and Christian Foundation classes, are held on Sundays at 9:45 a.m. Transportation is available for all church services, events and func-
