Seeking volunteer assistance?

If your group is seeking volunteer assistance for a one-day, non-profit, community-related event, requests may be made in writing. Include organization's name, address, contact person and phone number, type of event, time, date, expected number attending and type of help needed. Mail to: Sisters of Bivouac Chapter 530, Order of The Eastern Star, PHA, Attn.: Program Committee, P.O. Box 4652, Winston-Salem, NC 27115-4652.

Power wheelchairs available

Miracle on Wheels makes available power (electric) wheelchairs to nonambulatory senior citizens (65 years old and up).

usually at no out-of-pocket expense if they qualify. No deposit is required.

The electric wheelchairs are provided to those who cannot walk and cannot self-propel a manual wheelchair in their homes or independent living quarters and who meet the additional qualifications of the program. The service also may be available to the permanently disabled of any age.

Call 1-800-749-8778 or visit our Web site at www.durablemedical.com for more information on the details of this program.

Hospice needs volunteers

Hospice welcomes volunteers. Opportunities are available to work with our agency in a number of ways, including: as patient-family volunteers, who run errands or stay with patients so care-givers can get away for a few hours; as bereavement volunteers, who offer their support to families whose loved ones have died; as spiritual care volunteers - clergy or lay people - who visit with patients and their families, providing a special support system; as volunteers at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home, who are there on a daily basis, providing a support system for parents and their families as well as Hospice staff; as office volunteers, who help with day-to-day activities; as Carousell group volunteers, who help by working as grief group facilitators as well as assisting with monthly orientations, grief education workshops and day-to-day activities; as Camp Carousell volunteers, who assist with a weekend camp for children and adults who have experienced the deaths of loved ones; and as Hospice Hands volunteers, who help by speaking to area groups, baking special treats, helping with odd jobs and repair work, assisting with bingo, helping with children's support programs, coordinating special events and working with annual programs such as

Light Up a Life, the Memorial Tree, Hospice Sabbath and Hospice Hope Run.

Sorority will hold regional conference in Winston-Salem

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Beta Alpha Chapter of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority will host the Southern Regional Conference at the Hawthorne Inn March 15-17. The conference will begin with the arrival on Wednesday of the regional director, Alice F. Pressley. She will prepare for the first annual Southern Region Iota Leadership Institute to be held Friday, March 15, from 8:30 a.m. until noon. The topic will be "Essential Leadership Skills for Current and Future Iota Leaders." Each of us is called together for this historic event that is guaranteed to build the bold new leadership that is needed to continue for Iota to go forward in the future.

Included in the three-day conference will be an educational luncheon. The speaker for the occasion will be the national president of Iota Phi Lambda, Lillian Parker. She will speak to 18 chapters represented from the Southern area of the United States.

The conference will involve various meetings, a banquet on Saturday night, followed by an Amateur Night of New Stars!

Amateur Night will have contestants from all chapters.

The Sunday session will end the 2002 conference. The session will begin with a prayer breakfast. The morning speaker will be Cynthia Dickson, a member of First Waightown Baptist Church.

Phi Omega chapter celebrates Founders Day

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Phi Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. celebrated Founders Day recently. Members of the chapter and their guests gathered at the Hawthorne Inn for the sorority's 94th anniversary. The theme for the luncheon was "Reclaiming and Retaining Our Heritage."

Susie Nance, chapter president, gave greetings for the occasion. Founders Day chairperson Malinda Jowers acted as the mistress of ceremonies and Dr. Angela Evans-Everett was the keynote speaker. Evans-Everett, program specialist for Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools, spoke on growing within the sorority and how Alpha Kappa Alpha has a role in an already busy adult lifestyle.

Special recognition was given to Constance Johnson and Mertice Williams for their 25 years of service. Geneva Brown was awarded for her 50 years in the sorority. All other Golden Sorors were asked to stand and received a very warm ovation.

Olivia Morgan and Faustina Holman provided music for the occasion. Marion Brower led the Phi Omega Chorus as well as everyone in song.

The Founders Day committee members were: Malinda Jowers (chairperson), Gloria Banks, Leslie Bolden, Deidre Brown, Veronica Ford, Velma Friende, Gwendolyn Greene, Maurice Jackson, Wynette Jenkins, Monica Johnson, Jeannette Lewis, Hazel McGill, Olivia Morgan, Susie Nance, Barbara Puryear, Chlories Shore, Janet Wheeler, Norma Jeffries-White and Dorothy Wynecoff.

On Sunday of the weekend, members of the chapter attended worship service at United Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church. Rev. Donald Ballard warmly welcomed the women to the service. This was the concluding activity for the chapter's Founders Day celebration.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was founded on the campus of Howard University in January 1908. It is the first Greek-letter organization established by African-American women. Winston-Salem's Phi Omega Chapter was organized in 1924, the first chapter in North Carolina.
