Old Town takes 15-2 win over Martin Luther King Center

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Old Town did its damage early and cruised to a 15-2 victory over Martin Luther King in a Winston-Salem Recreation Department baseball game.

MLK jumped out to a quick lead in the first inning. Rashaun Lee singled and Terrell Taylor doubled to put runners in scoring position. Tony Ford's single drove home both runs.

Old Town came storming back, batting around in the first inning against the MLK pitching staff. Paul Manneso, Josh Simington, Ross Davis, Darryl Tuttle, Asa Beal and Cody Dotson led the way at the plate. Simington picked up the victory for Old Town on the mound. He shared the pitching duties with relievers Dotson and Brittany Tate.

Old Town and Reynolds Park T-Ball teams played a fun game last week. No score was kept and both teams got playing experience. The object was teaching fundamentals to the kids.

100 and ran a leg-on the first-place 4x400-meter relay team in the girls 15-16 division.

Mattie Bethea took first place in the high jump, ran on the second-place 4x100- and first-place 4x400-meter relay teams in the girls 15-16 division.

Jerrod Wiley captured a gold medal in the 400 and ran on the winning 4x100 relay in the boys 15-16 division. He teamed with Samuels, Terrance

Patterson and Theo Moser to capture a gold in the 4x100 relay.

Claire Ritchie won a gold medal in the high jump in the girls 17-18 division. Duan Barrino brought home a gold medal in the boys 200.

Other medalists for WSETC who will be competing in the nationals include: Shakira Salandy, Jessica Morgan, Jazzmin Hall, Brittany Hodges, Michael Ross, Patrick Nicholson, Aaron Stone, Jeremy Bethea, Edwina Green, Takisha Wise, Erin Green, Archie Barrow, Joshua Muldrow, Antwon Ingram, Raymond Robinson, Akila Salandy, Ryan Booker, Tony Gorham, Rashad O'Neal, Russell Kempf, Wayne Crowell and Ja'Warr'Payne.

"I would like to wish all of the Junior Olympic qualifiers good luck," Antwon Hughes, the team's head coach, said "I would also like to thank my staff (Rico Stancil, Kevin Hall, Lamond Payne) for their time and dedication. I'd also like to recognize the board members - Michelle McMuller, Linda Patterson, Robin Samuels, Sylvester Harrison and Benita McMuller - for their time and dedication."

After making such a big splash in its first season, Hughes said the team has a bright future.

"We also had some athletes who came close to finishing in the top four who we believe will be top contenders for next year," Hughes said.

That group includes Jaylan Ross, Steven Perkins, Warren Portis, Ashley Evans, Sheundra Martin, Ashley Woods and Kayla Burns.

on Waterworks Road in Winston-Salem. It will include registration for football players and cheerleaders, a flag football game between parents and coaches from 10-11 a.m., a parent meeting from 11-12, and open house from 12-3. A physician will be available to give physicals for players who have not received one for the upcoming season for a charge of $10.

Booths will be set up by the Winston-Salem Fire Department, Winston-Salem Police Department, Brenner's Children Hospital and Today's Woman. Assistant County Attorney Denise Hartsfield, a candidate for judge, will also have a booth and will be on sight to talk with local residents. The Tiny Indians will sponsor a registration drive for unregistered voters.

"We're trying to get a message out to the people that we're concerned about the community," Green said. "We want people to come out and see what we're doing. We're going to serve hot dogs and other refreshments as a public service to people who come out. We're going to have games for the kids, and a lot of prizes are going to be given out during the day."

Cheerleaders, come prepared to be measured for your new uniforms.

Green said the organization is still looking for volunteers and coaches for the Tiny Indians.
