CHRONICLE STAFF REPORT

Fayetteville State Broncos ground Eagles

Amir Holding, freshman tailback and Durham native, rushed for 111 yards and two touchdowns as the Fayetteville State Broncos beat the N.C. Central Eagles 45-7 last Saturday in Durham.

The Broncos dominated the first half, scoring on two Ross McKernan field goals, a short run by Holding, a safety, and Eric Blackwell's 20-yard touchdown return of a blocked punt to open up a 22-0 lead at halftime. Fayetteville State continued to pour it on in the third quarter, extending its lead to 42-0 on another touchdown run by Holding and two touchdown passes from quarterback Duane Taylor to Jonathan Biddle and Wayman Westbrook. McKernan added another field goal in the fourth to make the score 45-0.

The Eagles averted the shutout when Lawrence Fuller scampered into the end zone from 13 yards out with 4:10 left in the game. Jamal Molden added the PAT for the game's final margin of 45-7.

Taylor completed 10 passes for 121 yards and DeAngelo Bridgers added 90 rushing yards for the Broncos, who improved to 5-2, 3-1 and will host Johnson C. Smith on Saturday. The Eagles fell to 3-4, 1-3 and will look to end a three-game losing skid at Winston-Salem State in the Rams-Eagles Classic, which will air live on BET on Saturday at 7 p.m.
