Mount Zion Baptist will celebrate Men's Day

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Mount Zion Baptist Church, where the Dr. Serenus T Churn Sr. is minister, will celebrate Men's Day on Oct. 26. The theme is "Men Working for Christ." The featured speaker will be the Rev. Charles R. Mosley, pastor of Nazareth First Baptist Church of Asheville.

Mosley has been previously distinguished as the Minister of the Month in Belmont, N.C.; selected as a delegate for the N.C. State Convention tour of West Africa; has been listed in "Who's Who Among Black Americans"; and was honored in 1976 with an honorary doctor of divinity degree from Shaw University, Raleigh.

He received his A.B. and B.D. M. Div. degrees from Shaw University.

A few of his current affiliations are: member of Shaw

Rev. Mosley

Divinity School board of trustees; member of board of visitors of Shaw Divinity School; chairman of Ordaining Council, Mud Creek Baptist Association; member of Western North Carolina AIDS Project Committee; and vice president of Baptist Ministers' Union of Asheville and Vicinity. The Mighty Men of Zion have enjoyed and planned several fellowship activities that included young and older men of the church. Some of these activities (and leaders) were: learning to enjoy the Reynolds Park golf driving range (Deacon Kenneth Kimber), Bowling Challenge at Major League Lanes (Rhett Butler), book club for young and old (Mark Moss), clothing drive for men in need (Al Jabbar), and beautifying the church premises (Deacon Charles Laney and William Hickman).

In addition to the fellowship activities, the men will be generously contributing moneys that will go toward retiring the church's mortgage.

Mount Zion Men's Day chairman for this year, was Deacon Toussaint L. Holland. The vice chairman was James Franklin.

He also served as pastor of Porter Temple CME Church in Dallas from 1968 to 1974. He served as pastor of Israel Metropolitan CME Church in Greenville, S.C., from 1974 to 1982. He served on the Greenville City Council from 1978 to 1982. He was appointed pastor of Parkwood Institutional CME Church in Charlotte in 1982 and served there until 2001.

The public is invited to attend. The church is at 401 N. Woodland Ave. Rev. Calvin Runnels is the host pastor. For more information call 724-2611.

Miracle Temple hosts the Clarion Call Family Gathering

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Clarion Call Family Gathering - a service of reconciliation, restoration and healing - will be held Oct. 26 at 5:30 p.m. at Miracle Temple Deliverance Church.

The Call is founded upon Isaiah 58. The family does matter and has been affected by such problems as domestic violence, poverty, unemployment, divorce and incarceration. When our families are dysfunctional our communities and churches are affected also. The Call is an effort to bring families together to renew covenants.

The Call was first hosted by Revelations of Faith Church by Pastor Sarah Hauser and sponsored by Dove in the Vineyard World Outreach Ministry.

Miracle Temple Deliverance Church, which is in process of a building project, fosters the concepts of the Call. The special guest for this occasion is Apostle Barry Spates of Calvary Ministry Worship Center. He is a native of Winston-Salem and attended A&T State University. He has traveled and ministered throughout the United States. He is an extension in fellowship and works with Christian International Ministry, Santa Rosa, Fla. He is married to Prophetess Patricia Spates.

The public is invited to attend. Miracle Temple is at 3317 Old Lexington Road. Charlie Jenkins is the pastor.
