FISHER

Mr. Jason Michael Fisher, 2951 Bainbridge Dr., Winston-Salem, passed away Nov. 6 unexpectedly in Winston-Salem. Jason was born Nov. 14, 1981, to Vanessa Martin Fisher and Ralph Michael Fisher in Winston-Salem. His public school education was in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and Forsyth Technical Community College. He was employed at Wendy's on Main Street in Kernersville, N.C.

Cherishing his memory are: his parents, Vanessa M. Fisher and Ralph M. Fisher; three sisters, Jasmine Fisher, Michelle (Matthew) Etheridge of Greensboro, N.C., and Alexseil Parker of Charlotte, N.C.; maternal grandparents, John and Lillian Martin; paternal grandmother, Mary Fisher; four uncles, the Rev. Christopher (Michelle) Martin of Detroit, M.I., Talmadge (Mamie) Fisher, Kenneth Fisher and Reginald Fisher; three aunts, Deidra (Dwayne) Cherry, Angela (Robert) Manning of Winston-Salem, NC, and Debra (Cecil) Anthony of Virginia Beach, VA; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The funeral was held Nov. 11 at 1 p.m. at the Chapel of the Russell Funeral Home. Rev. Christopher Martin officiated. Burial followed at Evergreen Cemetery. Russell Funeral Home directors were in charge of the arrangements.

LEWIS

Mr. Harvey Lee Lewis Sr., 415 Parkwood Ave., Winston-Salem, passed away Nov. 9 at Wake Forest University/Baptist Medical Center. He was born Feb. 3, 1938 in Winston-Salem. He attended the local public schools and graduated from Atkins High School in 1958. Deacon Lewis was a proud and faithful member of Macedonia Holiness Church of God of the Apostolic Faith. His greatest pride was preparing and serving meals at church banquets for his brothers and sisters in Christ. He was active in church by participating on the Deacon board, the Brotherhood, the Pastor's Aide Committee, the Food Committee and Sunday School. He was a meat cutter for 47 years and a retiree of Food Fair, Inc. He was preceded in death by his mother, Ms. Etta Lewis Mack; his father, Mr. Thomas Durham; his grandmother, Ms. Stella Christmas Lewis and a sister, Ms. Jeanette Hall. He was a devoted and loving father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of 46 years, Mrs. Lois Virginia Hinson Lewis; five children, Mr. Harvey Lee Lewis, Jr. of Columbia, SC, Mr. Lecarlos B. (Sharon) Lewis of Winston-Salem, Mr. Richardo A. (Edna) Lewis of Bloomington, IL, Tanya L. (Rickey) Mayes of Winston-Salem, and Michael R. Lewis of Woodbridge, VA; three brothers and a sister, Robert Mack, Christopher Mack and Delores (Henry, Sr.) Denson of Springfield, Massachusetts and Kenneth (Irma) Mack of Winston-Salem; 12 grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, church members and friends.

The funeral was held Nov. 13 at 1 p.m. at Macedonia Holiness Church of God of the Apostolic Faith. Bishop Robert L. Wise officiated. Burial followed at Evergreen Cemetery. Russell Funeral Home directors were in charge of the arrangements.

MACKEY

She is survived by: a sister, Flora Fox; a brother of California, Floyd (Earnestine) Fox; five children, Sandra (Paul) Hart, Lesia (Thomas) Richmond, Cathy Adams, Paul Davis and Floyd (Roselyn) Davis all of Winston-Salem; 13 grandchildren, six great grandchildren; a nephew, Wayne Fox of the home; a host of other relatives and friends.

The funeral was held Nov. 16 at noon at the Chapel of the Russell Funeral Home. Rev. Robert L. McGowens, Sr. officiated. Burial followed at Evergreen Cemetery. Russell Funeral Home directors were in charge of the arrangements.

Higher Ground to hold revival

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The season has come when we give thanks to God for all he has done for us throughout the year. This year Higher Ground Ministries Inc. will celebrate with a revival.

The guest speaker will be Apostle Marcus Strong. This awesome speaker was a guest during Higher Ground's Heaven on Earth Convocation and had a wonderful message.

He is the founder and pastor of one of the fastest growing churches in Forest City, N.C., Miraculous Healing & Prophetic Ministries, and president of "Rapha" International Ministry Inc. He serves on the Board of Presbyters of End Time Harvest Preparational Assembly, under the leadership of Bishop Terrence Sykes. Strong is a native of Shelby, N.C. He graduated from Bums High School in Cleveland County in 1992. In 1993 he graduated from the Fellow Peace Holiness Theological Seminary in Miami, Fla., with an associate's degree in Old and

New Testament studies. He also attended the Christ Cathedral Preaching Institute, under the tutelage of Bishop Freddie Marshal Jr.

Everyone is invited to the revival at Higher Ground Ministries Monday, Nov. 22, through Wednesday, Nov. 24, with services at 7:30 nightly. The church is located at 406 Northwest Blvd. For more information call the church administrative offices at 725-1125.

The pastor and founders of Higher Ground Ministries are Bishop John H. Heath and Co-Pastor Janice Heath.

United Progressive will celebrate friends, family

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

United Progressive Baptist Church will celebrate Friends and Family Day on Sunday, Nov. 21, at 11 a.m. The church invites all members, former members, family and friends of the community to attend this joyous occasion.

Attendees will be able to reminisce about the good times and enjoy the goodness of the Lord together in fellowship and fun. Immediately after the service, everyone who attended the service and those who were unable to attend are welcome to come and have dinner in the fellowship hall. Prizes will be given away, so bring as many people as you can to win. There will also be games and prizes for the children.

For more information, contact Pastor Lewis E. Devlin at 724-1266. The church is located at 1122 Quincy Cardwell Circle (East 12th and Jackson Avenue), Winston-Salem.

Robertson to speak at Harvest Day

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Rev. Charles E. Robertson will speak at the Harvest Day service celebration at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 21, at Mount Calvary CME Church in Mount Airy. This special service will also mark the 105th Founders Day observance of the church.

Mount Calvary was established in Surry County shortly before 1900 as an affiliate of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church (now Christian Methodist Episcopal Church). Credits are given to church trustees W.T. Valentine, Isaac Wright and Pleas Payne for starting Combstown School, where all blacks in the east region of Mount Airy were educated for a number of years.

Rev. Robertson and his congregation will kick off the church's Harvest Rally, which is held annually on the last Sunday in November, embracing this year's theme:

"We just want to thank you, Lord!"

The church is a part of the Winston-Salem/Greenville District of the Carolina Region of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. The presiding prelate is Bishop Charles L. Helton of the Seventh Episcopal District. The Rev. Dr. James E. Russell, Jr. is the presiding elder. Rev. James L. Tillman serves as pastor of Mount Calvary CME Church, 235 Boulder Road in the Combstown community of Mount Airy.

The public is invited to come and join in worshipping and giving thanks to the Lord of the Harvest.

United Cornerstone to hold family, friends day

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

United Cornerstone Missionary Baptist Church will hold its annual Family and Friends on Sun., Nov. 21, beginning at 9:25 a.m. Sunday school. The guest speaker for the 11 a.m. worship service will be Rev. Marvin T. Clowney, Sr., joined by the congregation of First Baptist church in Clinton, N.C.

Clowney, a native of Kannapolis, is the son of the late Rev. Marion and Mattie Clowney.

Rev. Clowney is a general insurance agent for Integrity National Insurance Co. and Settlers Life Insurance Co.

He is actively involved in several associations and organizations such as: the Clinton City Branch of the NAACP; president of the Ministerial Alliance-Clinton/Sampson; moderator of the Western Union Association, which is made up of 21 churches; Habitat for Humanity; the General Baptist State Convention USA Inc., of which he is dean of ushers; the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education; the Progressive National Convention; and the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention.

He has served as pastor of Macedonia Baptist Church in Taylorsville and Mt. Vernon Baptist Church in Lincolnton, and interim and associate pastor of First Baptist Church in Kannapolis.

In June 1994 he became the pastor of First Baptist Church in Clinton. The church's ministries and membership have grown since he has been pastor. A new 350-seat multipurpose facility has been constructed and named in his honor. Under his pastorate, four men and three women have been guided into the ministry of preaching.

Rev. Clowney is married to the former Tonda Lynn Stafford. They have three children, Alpha Dawn, Marvin Tyrone Jr. and Liseta Lynnette; and four granddaughters, Anjah Dawn, Anya Lari, Akiya Deneen and Kayla Dawn.

Dr. J. Ray Butler is the host pastor. The public is invited to attend. Dinner will be served immediately after the morning worship service. The church is located at 2743 Patria Street at Wright St. If you need more information, contact the church office at 785-1268.
