STEWART

William "Brown" Stewart began his eternal rest in glory on Saturday, March 29, 2008 - with family and friends at his bedside. For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit... (Colossians 2:5). William was born to the late Estelle Stewart Hammond and Joe Wilson in Lancaster, S.C. on October 17, 1927.

He attended the local public schools of Lancaster. He moved to Winston-Salem, N.C. as a young man and began working for the RJ Reynolds Tobacco Company. During his 35-year tenure with RJ Reynolds, he met and married his loving wife of 50 years Fronnie Mae Thomas Stewart.

Serving the Lord through his membership at Emmanuel Baptist Church, William was known for preparing delicious meals for many church and family gatherings. He served on the Trustee Board, the Kitchen Committee and the Spiritual Choir. He enjoyed telling jokes, attending family reunions, traveling to "Camp Meeting" in Lancaster, and most of all hearing good preaching and singing. "Papa" was considered a family and community historian as his recollection of people and events was remarkable! He truly loved his family and his church!

He was preceded in death by his parents and son, William Wayne Stewart. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Fronnie T. Stewart; his legacy lives on through his sons, Richard E. (Manya) Stewart, Kenneth L. Stewart (Ruby Ingram); grandchildren, Tonya Stewart (Randall) McCray, William "Man" Stewart, II, Johnetta and Billy Stewart, Angela Richardson, Scott, Brandon, and Christopher Stewart, Jasmine Stewart Stallworth and Kenneth L. Stewart, Jr.; great-grandchildren: Randy, Kier, and Brandon McCray, Jordan and Jaden Stallworth; one sister, Dr. Juanita Flemming; one sister-in-law, Rose Thomas; a brother-in-law, Diggs Harris; special Stewart cousins from Lancaster, Lottie Allen, Will, Heyward and Doretha Stewart, and Lucinda Hood, many nieces, nephews, extended family and special friends at Johnson Home of Memory.

The family visitation was on Wednesday, April 2, from 7 until 9 p.m. at Clark S. Brown & Sons Funeral Home. The celebration of life service was at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday,

April 3, at Emmanuel Baptist Church. The Rev. Dr. John Mendez officiated. Interment was in Oaklawn Memorial Gardens. (Clark S. Brown & Sons)

YOUNG

Deacon Roland Young, 81, of 755 E. Clemmonsville Circle went home to be with the Lord on March 19, 2008. He was preceded in death by his wife of many years, Louise Young.

Deacon Young was a faithful member of Liberty Grove Baptist Church until his health failed. He is survived by a son and daughter, Arthur and Doreen Young, several grandchildren, very special nieces and nephews, Alice Roseboro-Joe, Sharon Roseboro, Larry "Mont" Joe, Jr., Robert Joe, Anthony Roseboro, Tre'shen Joe, Tyrick "Boog" Joe, Bertha Parks, and the Rev. Ardeal Roseboro and a host of other relatives and friends.

A memorial service was held at 12 noon Saturday, March 22 in the chapel of Clark S. Brown & Sons Funeral Home. A special thank you to personal care workers, Kevin Lawing and Luis Rossell, Allyn Health Care Professionals, Apollo Courtesy Transportation and Piedmont Dialysis. (Clark S. Brown & Sons)
