DAVIS

The gift of time given to Sister Louise Davis began on January 3, 1909 in Winston-Salem, N.C. her birth place. In the ensuing years she grew in grace and knowledge, and with the nurturing of loving parents, the late Junius and Lu Ann Hammond. The developmental time she spent in the public schools of Winston-Salem underscored her subsequent attendance at Winston-Salem Teachers College and La Mae Beauty College. She furthered her education in the metropolitan New York City area, where she graduated from the Orchid School of Cosmetology; she earned a Doctorial degree in her vocational field of choice.

The span of time commonly known as "retirement", found Sister Louise Davis enjoying her golden years with an uncommon zest for life and living. After taking up residence in Sunrise Towers of Winston-Salem in 1970, she continued to be a vibrant spirit and role model in the company of her contemporaries, as well as persons her junior. In the appointed days of that providential order, she enthusiastically engaged herself in the affairs of her community as a member of the Resident Council Housing Authority Commission, Urban League, National Council of Negro Women, Piedmont Council on Aging, Forsyth Democratic Party, NAACP, Experiment in Self-Reliance Board, East Winston Development, INC, and The Order of the Eastern Star. In 1989 she won the coveted title of Miss North Carolina Senior Citizen Queen, a crowning moment in her many life experiences. For her commendable use of her appointed time, she received a Lifetime Achiever's Award by the Winston-Salem Chronicle. Until declining health prevailed she was a faithful member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church where she served in many official capacities.

In the fullness of time, the transformation of her appointed days came on Wednesday, June 11, 2008 at the Lutheran Home in Winston-Salem. And when her peaceful change came, many pleasant memories pervaded the heart of her loving daughter, Jacki Jenkins; her granddaughter, Michele R. (James) Grace; a devoted niece, Gwendolyn Wharton; a step-daughter, Ernestine Nichols; her God-daughter, Anne Hadley; the cousins and nieces in New York, Pennsylvania, and Florida; three great-grandchildren; seven great-great-grandchildren; the Grace Family and many friends made during the course of her appointed time. In the passing of time, her late husband, Raymond Davis and her grandson, Bobby Ray preceded her in death.

Home going services were held at 1 p.m. June 18 from the Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Rev. Dr. Serenus T. Churn, Sr. officiated. Interment followed in Evergreen Cemetery. Online condolences may be made at www.russellfuneralservice.com. Russell Funeral directors were in

"Oh that thou wouldst bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou wouldst keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me!- I Chronicles 4:10"

Rev. Mother Lillian Robinson-Robinson was born May 21, 1923 to the late Lacy and Ruth Robinson in Aiken, South Carolina. She was called home to be with the Lord on Monday, August 11, 2008. She was preceded in death by her husband, Irvin Oscar "Kojack" Robinson; her son, Ronald Miller; and her sisters, Frances "Tossie" Robinson and Catherine Manning.

Mother Robinson was a woman whose life and ministry was dedicated to the power of intercessory prayer; a prayer warrior who has been used of God to birth and sustain many ministries and leaders throughout this Triad area. She could be found most days hosting a prayer meeting, evangelizing or ministering to a pastor and his or her spouse in an intercessory prayer session in her home. Mother Robinson believed the scriptures when it declares ..pray without ceasing. She was a founding member of Ministry for Christ, Incorporated where she served faithfully as Assistant Pastor under the leadership of her pastor and daughter Bishop Andrea Miller-Nash. Mother Robinson was ordained into Apostolic Leadership as Rev. Mother by Holy Orders released at the hand of Bishop Nash. Reverend Mother Robinson is accredited for assisting the ministry in many phases of its growth and maintaining a spirit of prayer. She will be greatly missed by her church family and the many churches she was blessed to share in fellowship with through the years.

She has left a rich and enduring legacy of life, family and Kingdom service. Those charged with the preservation of this heritage are her children; Patricia Miller-Douglas, Edward Leon Miller, and Bishop Andrea "Chuckie" Miller-Nash; nine grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; also many nieces, nephews and church family.

She also leaves to cherish and celebrate her life several spiritual sons, daughters and godchildren; Apostle Sylvester D. Johnson, Apostle Evelyn Monroe, Apostle Timothy & Melinda Quattlebaum, Bishop John H. Heath, Bishop Jack & Delores Nelson, Bishop Freddie B. Marshall, Bishop Brenda E. Nelson and Pastor Linda & Sherman Robinson and close friend Paul Foot.
