Honorary brunch will celebrate several women

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Pfafftown Chapter of National Women of Achievement, Inc.'s Keepers of the Dream honors go to outstanding women in the community. They were created by Achiever Ann Moye.

D'Walla Simmons Burke

The 2009 honorees are Flonnie T. Anderson, Janice Price, D'Walla Simmons Burke, Rev. Dr. Linda Beal, Dr. Chere Chase, Connie Fletcher, and Dr. Marie Williamson.

This celebration will be held at the Piedmont Club in the BB&T building at 200 W. Second St., on June 6 at 11 a.m. There will be a delicious brunch and special entertainment.

The donation for admission is $25. Proceeds from donations will be used for scholarships to deserving college-bound students and students already attending college.

Pfafftown Chapter Achievers believe the most effective way to encourage students' success is through helping to bear the heavy burden of college expenses. The Pfafftown Chapter holds regular monthly meetings on the first Saturday of each month at 12 noon in the J. T. Lewis Clubhouse at Achiever Jeannette T. Lewis residence.

For tickets to the Keepers of The Dream ceremony, call Achiever Debra Macbeth, at 336-767-1503 or Achiever Leeanna Lee at 336-788-1621.

Old School Social Club has become ally to Hall-Woodward

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

A lifelong dream of assisting others and passing on the blessings that one receives has been a goal for Laura "Peaches" Blackburn.

She began by hosting barbecues in her backyard three times a year that were open to the entire community. Providing a meal for those who were in need and those who just wanted to enjoy the neighborly feast, gave Ms. Blackburn a sense of accomplishment. This annual tradition evolved into what is now known as the Old School Social Club, a non-profit organization that encourages the love of music created from 1960 through the 1980s. This organization's main focus is to provide assistance to families in economic need in the community.

Club members present stipends to students.

The Old School Social Club reached out to the students of Hall-Woodward Elementary and provided many opportunities for them. The Old School Social Club began its work at Hall-Woodward by sponsoring children in financial need for a Christmas project. Each child received many gifts for themselves and their families. The gifts were distributed at a Christmas Dinner that was provided by the Club for the students and their families.

The Club also conducted fundraisers in order to assist the fifth grade students at the school in planning a trip to Washington, D.C. Through their fundraising, Club members were also able to send four children on the trip.

The Old School Social Club has been a wonderful addition to the Hall-Woodward family. They are always willing to help with their time and support students in any way they can. Several members also participated in the school's recent Celebrity Reader event. They went to several classrooms and read books aloud to children who will remember them always.
