Scholarships, awards presented at Spanish Nite

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

More than 400 people attended the Hispanic League's 12th Annual Spanish Nite Scholarship Awards Gala on April 9.

Emceed by Carmen Canales and Luis Batista, this bilingual, formal-attire event featured author Oscar Hijuelos, who gave the keynote address. Entertainment was provided by Orquesta GarDel and DJ Edgar Menendez.

The annual event raises money for scholarships for local students. In addition, proceeds from the silent auction, raffle tickets and photo sales during Spanish Nite raised $6,000 to benefit the Hispanic League.

The Hanesbrands, Inc. Hispanic Leadership Award was presented to Carlos Patiño for his exemplary contributions and leadership in the Hispanic/Latino community. Angel Cedillo was chosen as the winner of the $500 raffle.

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Winston-Salem State University Professor Angela Hartman and some of her Therapeutic Recreation students recently visited Hanes Hosiery Recreation Center.

The WSSU students planned games and social activities for the kids at the Center. They also provided snacks. The children and students had a great time laughing, talking and playing together. The event ended with the students and kids dancing together as a group with the help of a Nintendo Wii game.

Center Director Art Blevins says that Professor Hartman and the students will continue to be part of the Hanes Hosiery Recreation Center and will be doing more activities there in the near future. The Center now enjoys student volunteers from Wake Forest University, WSSU and Forsyth Technical Community College.

"It is a blessing to have these positive and energetic young people here to help us," said Blevins.
