UMMBC Senior Choir celebrating anniversary

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Senior Choir of United Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church will celebrate its 45th anniversary on Sunday, May 15 at 4 p.m. with a spirited musical celebration entitled, "There's Music in the Air."

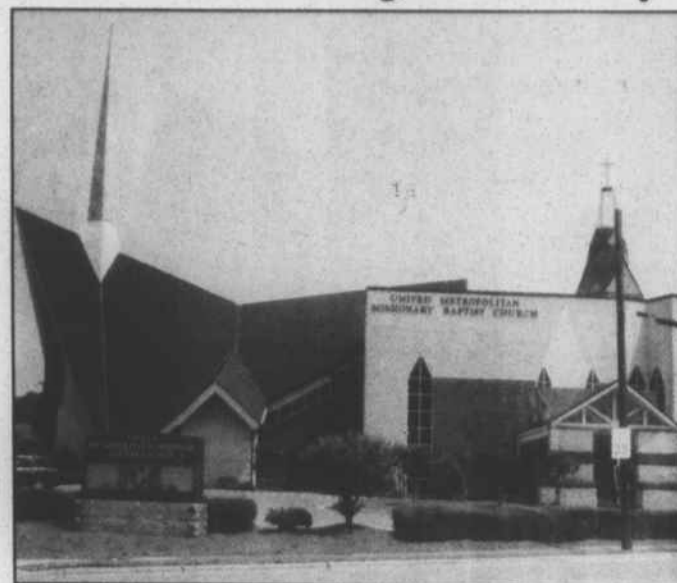

Chavis

The concert will feature spirituals, hymns, anthems and gospel songs, as well as popular musicians Dr. Roy Belfield Jr. and Lennis Cooper.

The program is the brainchild of Katherine "Rosemary" Chavis, the church's minister of music.

A native of Tarboro, Chavis has been a member of United Metropolitan since 1971. Chavis began working with the church's music department by serving as a pianist. By the 1990s, she was the director of the Senior Choir. After Chavis retired from the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System, she was asked to serve as Minister of Music by then-Pastor J.D. Ballard. Rev. Prince Rivers is the church's current pastor. The Senior Choir is one of several choirs at United Metropolitan, which also boasts Gospel, Christian Fellowship, Men's, Women's, Youth and Tots choirs. The church's newest choir, One Voice, was founded by Chavis.

The public is invited to attend the concert. The church is located at 450 Metropolitan Drive.
