

"Forsyth Medical Center
made me the center of attention."

I was just finishing treatments for leukemia when my heart began to retain fluid. It wasn't pumping adequately and started to swell. It got so bad I couldn't walk down the hallway. Thankfully, Forsyth has a dedicated heart failure clinic with experts who made me feel like their highest priority. I had heart surgery in April, and I climbed Stone Mountain in August. That was awesome.

Julie Taylor
Cardiac Surgery Patient

To schedule an appointment at the Forsyth Cardiac and Vascular Center, call 336-718-7000.
www.forsythmedicalcenter.org

Forsyth MEDICAL CENTER

In affiliation with

Cleveland Clinic
Heart & Vascular Institute