Ryan Jung, a 15-year-old pianist from Winston-Salem, placed second in the junior division of the recent annual Kathleen Price and Joseph M. Bryan Youth Concerto Competition for young North Carolina artists. The final round of the competition was held at Peace College in Raleigh. Ryan has won several other competitions, including the first prize in the Peter Perret Youth Talent Search Competition in 2009 and the North Carolina 2010 MTNA competition.

Petree holds inspirational ceremony for graduates

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Petree Elementary School held a fifth grade graduation ceremony Tuesday, June 25, where 80 students received certificates.

District Judge Denise Hartsfield was the speaker. She gave a dynamic message to the graduating class. She recited the "Good, Better, Best" philosophy to students, telling them, "never let it rest until your good is better and your better is best."

More than 250 parents, friends and community leaders watched the celebration. The ceremony ended with a garden party with food and music. Special appearances were made by the East Forsyth Middle School Health Department and Exchange SCAN. The grassroots community advocacy group CHANGE, one of Petree's community business partners, sponsored the event.
